

American Indian Law School Scholarship

The American Indian College Fund Native scholars at Harvard Law School have what it takes to succeed. A law degree is the foundation to creating strong future leaders. Thanks to a gift of $1 million from an anonymous donor, the American Indian College Fund will award the first American Indian Law School Scholarship in the fall of the 2018-19 academic year. The scholarship covers all costs of attendance, including tuition for the three-year course of study at Harvard Law School, for one Native student.

Applicants must apply by March 15, 2018 to be considered.

Program Details

- Apply by March 15, 2018
- Scoring, ranking, and selection March 15 – April 13, 2018
- All applicants must inform us of their HLS admissions status by April 1, 2018
- First recipient announced by April 16, 2018
- Eligible applicants must be American Indian or Alaska Natives who are enrolled tribal members or who are lineal descendants of an enrolled parent or grandparent.

If you have questions about the scholarship please email us at scholarships@collegefund.org