Brian C. Jensen Scholarship: Why are only Danish students eligible?

Brian C. Jensen has realized that study abroad has become a remarkable part of the education sector globally and as per the findings of OECD, United States, France, Australia, Canada, the United Kingdom, and Germany together receive more than 50 percent of foreign exchange students worldwide. Of these, Jensen knows that statistics reveal that the U.S.A. is still the top destination for Danes studying abroad. However, Danish students pursuing higher studies in the United States are faced with a high cost of living and massive tuition fees.

As such, the overall cost of education in the U.S.A. cannot be wholly funded by the Government of Denmark. Hence, the Brian C. Jensen Scholarship is a token of appreciation for a Danish student with an exceptional academic record in order to offset the cost of their studies in the United States.
