

Michael Giannulis Scholarship

Michael Giannulis is the chief executive officer of BPO USA as well as Pixx Media. He is also the co-owner of a leading real estate investment firm. He likes to share his business strategies including scaling tips with enthusiast entrepreneurs. Besides that, Michael has a very noble cause to come to the assistance of US students who cannot afford higher studies in the country.

Michael Giannulis is immensely aware of the fact that advanced education expenses in the United States are very costly in comparison to other countries around the world. The college or university course fees are tremendously high if a US candidate likes to pursue a higher degree or course from any renowned educational organization in the country. Simultaneously, Michael Giannulis understands that higher college or university education in America is the key to a successful career now and in the future. With higher education, you can have a winning career.

With thought process in his mind, Michael Giannulis has come up with the Michael Giannulis Scholarship program with the cordial gesture of helping the poor students of the US, especially candidates hailing from middle-class or low-income group families so that they can pay the fees for their higher studies without fretting over high course fees.

Michael Giannulis knows that sending on expensive college or university fees for higher studies is rather demanding, unfeasible for the poor students, especially those hailing from middle-class or poor income families in the country. To speak the truth, the students from poor financial backgrounds are often forced to take expensive education loans from financial companies or banks in comparison to their rich counterparts coming from affluent backgrounds for funding their higher education course fees. That is why he initiated the Michael Giannulis Scholarship program, which is talent-based and merit-oriented prize money for those candidates, who has academic potential but not the money to fund their higher education.

The monetary assistance is helpful because the poor US students aren't required to repay the money like when they apply for an educational loan from a Fintech or bank in the US. It is nothing but a one-time monetary aid or a cash reward for the most brilliant and deserving student who pens the best essay with a word limit of approx. 700-850 on the topic, "How Do You Scale Your Business and Improve Operations?"

Michael Giannulis is a talented and accomplished business owner who is aware that education is certainly the most important and crucial aspect when it comes to developing a successful career. However, the higher expenses incurred in pursuing advanced degree courses in the United States seem to be shooting up every year and numerous American students are finding it extremely challenging or unfeasible to finance their higher education on their own and without any monetary assistance or help.

Taking all these aspects into view, he has created the Michael Giannulis Scholarship with the noble objective of helping the most talented and most deserving student in alleviating financial stress and overcome the financial obligation of costly education in the popular and accredited colleges or universities in the country.

The Michael Giannulis Scholarship comes as monetary aid to poor US students, who can't shell out the higher-education college fees. The prize money has, therefore, offers an amount of $1,000 to the most ingenious and brilliant student in the country.

Before any candidate applies for the Michael Giannulis Scholarship program, he or she requires fulfilling the essential eligibility criteria:

- The candidate must be currently registered at one of the accredited and popular US colleges or universities in the country.
- The student should be a freshman, sophomore, or junior.

All candidates should write an elaborate, interesting, and useful essay of approx 700-850 words on the subject, "How Do You Scale Your Business and Improve Operations?"

Michael Giannulis scholarship prize money would be given to the most talented, brilliant, and knowledgeable essay writer based on the evaluation of each essay submission until the last date of submitting the said essays, as mentioned unequivocally. The students or candidates who manage to write about how entrepreneurs can scale their business and boost operations in innovative ways will receive the Michael Giannulis Scholarship cash reward. The information should be unique and not published elsewhere. All information needs to be supported with data and facts to corroborate all details.

The Michael Giannulis Scholarship is a one-time cash prize of $1,000.

The Michael Giannulis scholarship-based essay write-ups must be submitted through an email as an attached Word file to info@michaelgiannulisscholarship.com.

The following details need to be emailed together with the essay submissions:

- Complete Name
- Telephone Number
- Email ID
- Mailing Address
- High School Graduation Date
- University or College you currently enrolled, or have applied at, or whose application approved
- Most recent or Present GPA
- Personal Bio-data in not more than 290 characters

The last date for the Michael Giannulis essay entry is July 1, 2021.
The winner will be declared on July 15, 2021, via an email.

The name of the final winner or best essay writer will be published on this website www.michaelgiannulisscholarship.com.

The ultimate winner, who pens the best and exceptional essay, will be informed via an official email. The student needs to get in touch with Michael Giannulis within a couple of weeks or so by replying to the email. The cash prize money will be sent directly to the candidate's bank or financial aid account.