BigRentz Trade School Scholarship (2019)

The BigRentz Trade School scholarship was launched to support students who are pursuing a career in a skilled profession.

Introduction:

There is a widening skills gap, yet high demand for highly-skilled and well-trained workers among various trades. However, a recent BigRentz survey revealed there is an inaccurate view of trade schools and the earning potential of a skilled trade.

As an advocate of vocational education and to promote the advantages of a skilled trade, BigRentz is pleased to offer $10,000 in scholarships to students pursuing a career in skilled trades.

BigRentz will award $5,000 to two students to help cover educational expenses for a student currently pursuing (or who is planning to pursue) vocational training. Below you will learn how to enter the contest as well as the scholarship rules.

About BigRentz:

BigRentz is a technology-enabling, equipment rental logistics company that uses a network of supplier relationships to find the best rental and transportation solutions for its customers. Since 2012, BigRentz has focused on pairing technology with construction rentals to build the nation's largest equipment rental network that supports a more accessible and more efficient rental process.

How to Apply:

Please follow each of the following three steps to complete your application:

1. Essay Submission

Essay submissions must be 750-1500 words in length and include a title page with all of the following:

- Your Name
- Contact information (phone, email, mailing address)
- The name, address, and contact details of your school
- Your current grade level (e.g., Junior, Senior)
- Trade certification you are working towards

Essay Topic:

Embarking in a skilled trade requires hard work and dedication. Describe someone in your life that has inspired you with their strong work ethic, and how that has influenced you in choosing a career requiring a skilled trade.

2. Student Questionnaire:

All scholarships applicants are required to complete the following survey to be eligible for the award.

Questionnaire answers will not be used for consideration when selecting a winner.
These answers are strictly for our research, and all personal information will be kept confidential and separate from your application.

Please click here to begin the questionnaire

3. Completing Your Submission:

Once your essay is ready, please email the essay and title page in a PDF format to scholarships@bigrentz.com. Please make your subject line "Trade School Scholarship Application for Firstname Lastname". Please name your PDF file as "Lastname_Firstname_TradeSchool".

Rules:

All essays must be received by December 9, 2019 deadline by 11:59 PM EDT. Essays received after this date will not be considered.

The winner will be announced on December 16th, 2019.

Qualifications:

- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- Currently be pursuing, or plan to pursue, a skilled trade requiring admission to a trade school.
- You may be a senior in high school, an undergraduate, graduate, or postgraduate student to be eligible.

Details:

- Each student may write each essay topic once. Multiple entries for the same essay topic will be disregarded.
- All essays must be unique. Plagiarism will result in immediate disqualification.
- Employees of BigRentz and their immediate family are not eligible.
- All entries belong to BigRentz. BigRentz will have the exclusive right to republish any winning submission along with the name of the author.
- The winner is solely responsible for any federal, states, or local taxes.

- All prizes are paid in USD.
- The decision of BigRentz regarding the contest results and the winner is final.

Health Career Connection

Undergraduate students and recent graduates pursuing healthcare and public health related careers can apply through this link (<https://www.healthcareers.org/inter-ship-overview/summer-hcc-internship-application/>) or our website: <https://www.healthcareers.org/>. HCC empowers students to become the next generation of diverse, culturally competent health leaders and professionals. We strongly encourage students from families or communities that have experienced health inequities or social and economic challenges and those from first generation backgrounds to apply.

HCC has provided life changing, career launching internships with leading healthcare and public health employers for 30 years. Interns gain valuable exposure, experience, and mentorship in a supportive environment across our 9 regional cohort programs. HCC interns discover or affirm the health career direction that best suits them, find mentors, develop professional skills, secure jobs and increase their competitiveness for graduate education.

Please promote HCC internship opportunities today so that some of your students can experience these benefits and advance their academic and health career goals. Innovation Scholarship Essay Contest

Eligibility

Herrman & Herrman encourages creativity and innovation. In our 2019 scholarship program, we want to recognize six innovative students and two teachers who foster creativity in students.

To enter the scholarship contest, students should submit a creative entry in any format such as a video, poem, infographic, essay, piece of art, or song addressing the following topic:

What safety measures can schools implement, nationwide, to reduce the number of shootings that occur within schools?

The contest is open to high school juniors and seniors, and students currently enrolled in a two-year or four-year undergraduate program at a college, university or technical school in the United States only. We believe that getting an education is the best hope for young people to attain a rewarding career in the 21st century. We also know that inspiring teachers can change lives. We are proud to offer scholarship prizes to help further students' education and recognize deserving teachers.

HOW TO ENTER

Submit a creative entry addressing the topic above and write an essay of 300 words nominating a favorite teacher who has inspired your creativity for a teacher prize. Attach all of the following items through the form submission below. For all other inquiries, please contact scholarship@herrmanandherrman.com. The application site is <https://www.herrmanandherrman.com/scholarship/>.

- Creative entry in one of the following formats (pdf, doc, jpg, png, mv4, avi wav, mp3)
- Teacher nomination of roughly 300 words (doc, docx, pdf)
- Digital photo of yourself to use as a headshot (jpg or png)
- Your full name, school and phone number

(All information will be kept strictly confidential. **)

INNOVATION SCHOLARSHIP ESSAY CONTEST – GENERAL RULES

Students will submit a creative submission on the identified topic along with a 300-word paragraph nominating an inspiring teacher.

The contest is open to high school juniors and seniors and students currently enrolled in two-year or four-year colleges, universities and technical colleges in the United States. Students who are 17 years or younger will need to provide parental consent to enter.

Each student should submit a creative entry, a teacher nomination in a word document (pdf, doc, jpg, png, mv4, avi wav, mp3), along with a digital photo (jpg or png) of yourself and your name, school and phone number via the submission form on the main scholarship page.

Six winning entries will be selected based on the creativity and originality of the submission. Plagiarism will result in disqualification.

The deadline for entering the 2019 scholarship contest is December 1. The winners will be announced on or about December 21, 2019.

Decisions of the judges are final.

By voluntarily submitting identifiable information to our email address, you are providing Herrman & Herrman, P.L.L.C. with your name, phone number and email address for the sole purpose of entering the essay contest. We will not use the information for any other purpose than what has been stated.

By taking part in the scholarship contest, contestants agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Herrman & Herrman, P.L.L.C., its managers, members, directors, officers, and employees from and against any and all liability and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, associated with taking part in this contest or the acceptance, or use of prizes. Under no circumstances shall Herrman & Herrman, P.L.L.C., its directors, officers, and employees be liable to the contestant for indirect, punitive, special or consequential damages.

Employees of Herrman & Herrman, P.L.L.C, their board of directors and immediate families are not eligible to enter this scholarship contest.

Depending on the volume of submissions, Herrman & Herrman, P.L.L.C. may impose a cutoff at which time no additional applications will be accepted. If you are interested in taking part, you should enter the contest as soon as possible.

Six winners will be selected including three (3) students from Texas and three (3) students from throughout the United States. The winners in each category shall receive awards of $2,500 for first place, $1,500 for second place and $1,000 for third place. The teachers nominated by the two 1st place winners will receive $1,000 prizes. The number of prizes may be changed at the sole discretion of the judges.

By accepting a prize, the winners grant Herrman & Herrman the right to edit, publish, display, distribute and otherwise make use of the creative submission in connection with this contest and to use their names and biographical information for marketing purposes.

All applicable federal, state and local taxes on prizes will be the sole responsibility of the award recipients.

Linly Heflin Scholarship for Alabama Students

The Linly Heflin Scholarship Committee receives applications in the fall each year from Alabama women seeking help with their undergraduate degree at 4-year accredited Alabama colleges and universities. Rules for the 2020 Scholarship Contest: All high school seniors in the Class of 2019-1920 in good standing, and who expect to graduate in 2020 may apply.

There are no economic, ethnic, gender, religious or academic requirements for applicants. Scholarship awards will go directly to the schools where the winners have been accepted, and chosen to attend, upon graduation from high school. All schools of higher education accredited in the United States that require a high school diploma are eligible. Applicants are required to submit a written essay between 600 -1200 words, describing a personal prayer experience and its impact on a significant theme in their personal life experience, including, but not limited to gun violence, school shootings, immigration, climate change, gender and economic disparity, bullying or evolving sexual mores. Essays must be submitted in the form of a Word Document as an attachment to an e-mail and sent to info@prayersoup.org. Any essays that are included in the body of the e-mail will be disqualified. There can be no identifying information in the essay. Identifying information can only be included in the e-mail itself and must include Applicant's Name, Mailing Address, E-mail Address, Contact Phone Number, the name of the High School currently attended, and how the Applicant heard about the scholarship. The judging of these essays is "blind" so any essay that contains any identifying information will be disqualified.

Applicants will receive an ID number for their essay in an e-mail. The deadline for submission is December 31, 2019 at 12:00 a.m. EST. Winners will be selected and notified in March 2020. The decisions of the judges are final. All essays become the property of Prayer Soup, Inc.

Prayer Soup Scholarship

It is that time of year again, and we are so excited to announce our third annual Scholarship Competition! This year we are able to offer two scholarships to two members of the high school Class of 2020, due to some tireless fundraising efforts by our Board of Directors. The first prize will be a $1500.00 Award, and the second prize will be a $1000.00 Award. At Prayer Soup, our mission is to get everyone talking and thinking about prayer, so there are no economic, gender, ethnic, religious or academic requirements for this scholarship. We want to hear from everyone!

The HotelPlanner.com
Graduate Technology
Scholarship for Military Veterans

The HotelPlanner Scholarship Program was designed to provide financial assistance to veterans of the United States military, along with the spouse/partner and children of U.S. military veterans, who are pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree related to technology.

HotelPlanner recognizes the incomparable commitment made by the brave men and women of the military who fight to keep the country safe. As such, it is committed to support those individuals who choose to pursue a college degree and are in need of additional funds to help defray the costs of higher education.

As the leader in booking group and individual hotel travel online, technology is at the heart of everything HotelPlanner does and critical to the success of its business. Similarly, companies, governments and military operations around the world are increasingly dependent on those who understand and work with technology. This scholarship is intended to grow the pool of qualified individuals by helping to make their education in technology a reality.

Recipients

Awarded to ten applicants (veterans or veteran's spouses/partner and children) seeking a graduate education in an accredited degree program related to technology.

Awarded to ten recipients, two times per year - $1,000 each. Recipients may re-apply as long as they continue to meet the requirements. Funds will be issued via check made payable to the institution and mailed to the recipient's mailing address on file.

Women's Independence Scholarship, Inc.

An eligible applicant must:

- Be a female survivor of intimate partner abuse
- Be separated from her abuser a minimum of one year but not more than seven years.
- Have sought services from a non-profit agency that provides services to survivors of intimate partner abuse for a minimum of 6 consecutive months. This agency is willing to act as sponsor by mentoring and providing support to the student throughout her educational experience and can accept funds on behalf of the applicant, should a scholarship for living expenses be awarded.
- Be a citizen or permanent legal resident of the United States, or have an immigration status that makes her eligible for FAFSA,
- Be a current physical resident of the United States or its territories;
- Have applied to or been officially accepted into an accredited course of study at a United States institution.
- Demonstrate a critical need for financial assistance.
- Exhibit a strong desire and the ability to complete a training and/or academic program;
- Have a definite plan to use the desired training to upgrade skills for career advancement, to train for a new career field, or to enter or reenter the job market.

Do I have to go to a college?

We consider programs at accredited institutions. Some examples of programs that have received funding include: Nursing, Teaching, Computer Technology, Computer Training, Law Enforcement, Theology, Equipment Handling, Physical Therapist, Social Work, Counseling, Hairdressing, Landscape Design, Journalism, Medical Billing, Massage Therapist.

Support is available for full or part-time students interested in attending accredited programs at educational institutions listed below.

- State supported community colleges
- State supported colleges or universities
- Technical/vocational schools
- Private colleges or universities
- For Profit colleges

A note about For Profit colleges. WISP considers higher education institutions that are owned and operated by profit-seeking businesses the lowest priority for funding, and discourages applicants from seeking an education at a for profit college if there are any other options. For profit colleges have been criticized for using high pressure sales tactics to enroll students, often have a high cost of tuition which dramatically increases student loan debt, and academics that do not always transfer to other educational programs. We strongly encourage all students to research for profit colleges and be aware of the drawbacks before enrolling.

How is the scholarship paid? What are funds awarded for?

- Demonstrate a critical need for financial assistance.
- Exhibit a strong desire and the ability to complete a training and/or academic program;

Have a definite plan to use the desired training to upgrade skills for career advancement, to train for a new career field, or to enter or reenter the job market. Scholarship Awards for tuition, books and fees are paid directly to the educational institution. This is our first priority for funding.

Charitable Adjunct Assistance Awards, for education-related living expenses that would otherwise be financial barriers to education, are paid to the sponsoring agency on behalf of the recipient.

Categories for spending are rent, utilities, transportation, childcare, basic household expenses, medical expenses (copays, therapy), school. We cannot assist with old credit card debt, legal fees, relocation expenses, large or past due medical bills, entertainment or gifts.

We are prohibited from making any awards payable to individuals. Scholarships are paid on a by semester/term/quarter/session basis.

What Is A Sponsor?

A sponsor is a non-profit charitable organization with a 501(c) 3 designation from the IRS that provides services to survivors of intimate partner abuse that has worked with the applicant for at least 6 consecutive months. This person agrees to partner with the scholarship applicant and WISP during the application process and throughout the applicant's time in school.

The WW Graduate School's collaboration with MIT and its Cambridge location make this a true intellectual destination for future teachers who want to think differently about education.

Teacher candidates will prepare for licensure in biology, chemistry, or mathematics. Dedicated faculty mentors will support them throughout the program and for two years after they graduate to ensure a fulfilling and long-lasting career.

Thinking of the perfect candidate who has a background in math or science and is interested in teaching? Encourage anyone interested to apply by December 6, our early decision deadline.

Eligibility

Eligible applicants include graduating undergraduates, recent college graduates, career changers, and current teachers (without a master's in education) who have majored in, or have earned significant college-level credits in, biology, chemistry, or mathematics. Other STEM majors may be considered.

In addition, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- demonstrate a commitment to teaching and learning and the WW Graduate School and its goals;
- have U.S. citizenship or permanent residency;
- have attained, or expect to attain by June 30, 2020, a bachelor's degree from an accredited U.S. college or university or its international equivalent (Note: Undergraduate degrees earned outside the U.S. are accepted if an approved credential evaluator declares the degree equivalent to an earned U.S. bachelor's degree); and

2020 APPLICATION DEADLINES:
Dec. 6, 2019 (early action) | Mar. 2, 2020

Young Innovators to Watch Scholarship Program

The Young Innovators to Watch Scholarship Program is open to all students ages 13 to 20. Students enter by submitting their innovative STEM and STEAM projects. All projects are judged by experts in the fields of technology, entrepreneurship, and education. Over 55 scholarships have been awarded since 2014!

Who is eligible to apply for the Young Innovators to Watch Scholarship Program?

The award is open to individuals and small teams, ages 13 to 20, who create an innovative technical or scientific project.

Submission Requirements

All applicants submit application materials, including the recommendation form, by the closing date as specified on the web site. All project submissions must contain the following:

1. A completed application form, which is found online
2. A picture, video or website of their project
3. If under 18, the applicant (or all underage team members) must obtain and submit a parental/guardian consent form.

4. Affirmation that the submission does not infringe upon copyright law or the intellectual property of an uncredited party.
5. A completed recommendation form, found on the website, is optional.

PLEASE NOTE: A video, photo or website of the functioning project is required. Applicants must submit at least a working prototype (or complete business plan if the product is experiential), but more developed products will be more carefully considered.

What is the value of the Young Innovators to Watch Scholarship Program?

Winners will receive a $1,000 cash scholarship. In addition, they will receive an invitation to attend an all-expense-paid trip for them and one family member to CES 2020 in Las Vegas for an awards ceremony. Winners also receive some pretty cool technology gifts, such as phones and notebook computers!

When is the deadline to apply for the Young Innovators to Watch Scholarship Program?

All submissions are due by November 22, 2019.
