

$1,000 Halloween Costume Scholarship

Have fond memories of a favorite Halloween costume? Perhaps even fonder memories of your beloved pet's Halloween costume? To apply for the $1,000 Halloween Costume Scholarship, write an engaging essay that tells all about those oh so memorable costumes. Be sure to use plenty of details and make your essay come to life! This scholarship is offered by MoneySolver, a Jacksonville, Florida based company that offers advice and solutions in regard to student loans, business finances, credit, and taxes.

Who is eligible to apply for the $1,000 Halloween Costume Scholarship?

All applicants must:

- Be 18 years old at the time they apply for this scholarship
- Legally reside in the United States of America, including the District of Columbia
- Be currently enrolled in an accredited college, university, or a vocational school
- Plan to enroll (no later than the fall of 2020) in an accredited college, university, or vocational school

Take note that part-time students are also eligible to apply!

Essays, which will not have any identifying information on them, will be judged by a panel of qualified scholarship judges who will read the essays and rate them on four categories: writing ability, creativity, originality, and overall excellence. Interested in reading a sample winning essay? Click here to read the 2018 winner's winning essay, which is "howlingly" entertaining!

How much is the $1,000 Halloween Costume Scholarship worth?

Yep, you guessed right! This scholarship is worth $1,000! The funds can be used for college expenses or to pay down student loans.

When is the deadline to apply for the $1,000 Halloween Costume Scholarship?

The application must be submitted by October 31, 2019 (Halloween, of course!). The winner will be notified by December 31, 2019.

ACES (The Society for Editing Education Fund) Bill Walsh Scholarship

Six scholarships are awarded annually through the ACES Education Fund. One is the Bill Walsh scholarship, in honor of the late editor, author, and ACES guiding spirit. The winner receives $3,000 plus financial aid to attend the ACES national conference.

Additionally, the ACES Aubespain scholarship winner receives $2,500 and four other winners receive $1,500 each — also with aid to attend the ACES conference. The generosity of donors enables all of these awards.

Eligibility:

Each year before the end of April, new rules for the Walsh Award and the other ACES scholarships are posted on this page. Below are the rules and exercises for the 2019-20 competitions.

Applicants must be seeking degrees as enrolled college/university juniors, seniors, or graduate students during the summer and/or fall term in 2019. Scholarships are awarded without regard to the student's major or field of academic concentration. Previous scholarship winners are not eligible.

Requirements:

The specifics for all six scholarships are below. Applications must be emailed by the end of Nov. 15. All entry materials must be in English.

The Bill Walsh scholarship will go to an applicant who aspires to edit news and who demonstrates the talent and passion for language as Bill Walsh did.

Applicants for the other five scholarships should have a commitment to a career in the editing of written materials and demonstrate effectiveness in doing so.

By submitting a separate application for each, an entrant can seek both the Walsh and one of the other scholarships, but can win only one.

American Occupational Therapy Foundation Scholarship

Eligibility

Qualified applicants must meet all eligibility requirements.

Applicants must:

- Be currently enrolled as a full-time student at an AOTA accredited or developing professional level (master's or OTD) or occupational therapy assistant (OTA) program.
- Have completed at least one year of occupational therapy specific course work. If you are studying to become an occupational therapy assistant, you must be in your final year to be eligible.

A complete application will consist of:

- 1. Applicant contact information including appropriate membership information.

2. Academic background.
3. Resume including volunteer service, extracurricular activities, honors and awards received, work experience.
4. Essay question: response 500 words max. The essay provides an opportunity for the Scholarship Selection Committee to assess an applicant's personal and professional attributes and is an important part of the application -- please complete it carefully and thoughtfully.
5. Reference/Recommendation Forms: Two are required. Enter the name and email address of two references. One should be a current faculty member or faculty advisor and can speak about your academic ability and the other should be someone who can speak on your character, work experience, leadership qualities, community service skills and your ability to successfully complete the proposed educational program as it relates to occupational therapy. Applications not containing two references will be disqualified. If exceptional difficulties are experienced by references in the online submission process, please contact Gaby Garcon at scholarships@aotf.org or 240-292-1125. Completed reference forms must be submitted by November 14, 2019.
6. Program Director's Statement: Enter the name and email address of your Program Director or the Delegate of the Program Director. The Delegate must be approved and assigned by the Program Director. The Program Director may NOT complete the Reference/Recommendation Form. Applications are not considered complete without a Program Director's statement. Completed Program Director's Statement must be submitted by November 14, 2019.
7. Signature: In lieu of a signature, by agreeing to the terms and conditions prior to submitting your application, you are certifying that your application information is true and correct, and you are giving AOTF permission to obtain a Program Director's Statement and to contact the two (2) individuals named for references. This signature also authorizes AOTF to announce publicly the names and programs of successful applicants and to contact recipients for information that can be used to promote the scholarship program.

Applications for 2019-20 are now OPEN. You may access the online application by going to: <https://aotf.smapply.io/>

Important Items To Remember

1. You must 'submit' your application by October 17, 2019. No changes will be permitted to online applications once they have been submitted. Please review your application carefully prior to that time to ensure that all answers are true and up-to-date and then click the SUBMIT button.
2. References (two are required) and Program Directors must submit their online forms by November 14, 2019.

Applicants Are Considered For All Scholarships For Which They Qualify, But May Receive Only One Scholarship Per Year.

BEAUTY + WELLNESS SCHOLARSHIPS FOR WOMEN

COLLEGE AWARD: $1,000 + Organic Beauty Basket

HIGH SCHOOL AWARD: New! $500 + Organic Beauty Basket (2 winners every quarter!)

QUARTERLY DEADLINES: January 1 — March 31 — June 30 — September 30

Each day, the average woman applies more than 200 chemicals to her skin via her beauty routine and over 60% of those chemicals are absorbed directly into the blood stream. These chemicals include potentially cancer-causing chemical additives like parabens, mineral oils and other petrochemical byproducts, ethoxylated ingredients, phthalates, and sulfates (to name a few). Not only are we bombarded by potentially toxic chemicals in our beauty products, we're also constantly exposed to questionable chemicals in our food, cleaning products, and medicines. Combine those facts with our modern high-stress lifestyles and the CDC's estimation that 80% of American's do not get the recommended amount of exercise—and you've got yourself a big wellness problem. At Skin Care Ox, we believe that true wellness is within our grasp—if we are mindful, aware, and active in making good decisions. We are not alone. Today, more women are taking a closer look at the ingredients in their food and beauty products and making more informed choices. Additionally, yoga, meditation, and other alternative wellness therapies are more popular now than ever before.

Living a totally healthy lifestyle can be surprisingly challenging in our modern society—especially for college students! The Skin Care Ox: Beauty + Wellness Scholarship for Women program was established to provide financial support to college women who are striving to lead healthy lifestyles. If you are a female high school senior, undergraduate, or graduate student who is committed to maintaining personal wellness, then this is the scholarship for you!

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To be considered eligible to apply for this scholarship, you must meet the requirements below. The award is intended to help students who are enrolled (or plan to be enrolled) as undergraduate or graduate college students studying in the United States. The scholarship winner will be asked to provide proof of current/future college enrollment. Recent college graduates, high school juniors, and doctoral candidates are not eligible to apply.

Must be a graduating high school senior (in final semester) or current college undergraduate or graduate student studying at a 4-year, 2-year, vocational, or technical institution in the United States.

- Must be a U.S. Citizen or permanent legal resident
- Must be a woman.
- All majors are encouraged to apply.
- All GPAs will be considered.

HOW TO APPLY

We're asking women college students to share their personal wellness journeys and experiences as students. To apply, complete and submit the short online application by midnight PST on January 1, March 31, June 30, and September 30th every year. All applicants must submit a 500 word maximum essay on the essay prompt below. Student essays will be judged on their originality, creativity, and dedication to healthy lifestyle choices.

ESSAY PROMPT

Importance of a Healthy Lifestyle

Why are you committed to living a healthy lifestyle? How do you maintain your physical and mental wellness as a student? Is the cost or availability of organic + natural products a challenge? Has it been difficult or easy to make the healthy decisions? Why?

WHAT IS THE SCHOLARSHIP PRIZE?

There are two separate awards for the Beauty and Wellness Scholarship. Each quarter, we will select one college winner and two high school winners. Currently enrolled college students are eligible to win a $1,000 scholarship award and a care package filled with organic products. Graduating high school seniors are eligible to win $500 (two winners every quarter) and a care package filled with organic products.

WHEN WILL THE WINNER BE CHOSEN AND NOTIFIED?

The winners will be notified via email approximately three weeks after the scholarship deadline.

HOW WILL THE SCHOLARSHIP BE PAID?

College Winners: A $1,000 check will be sent to the winner's academic institution in their name and the name of their institution (depending on the school's requirements). The winner will also receive a package of assorted organic wellness goodies including skin care, beauty, and other non-toxic products.

High School Winners: Graduating high school seniors must provide proof of acceptance to a college or university before receiving a scholarship. A $500 check will be sent in their name and the name of their college/university (according to the institutions requirements) and a package of assorted organic wellness goodies will be sent to the winner directly. No scholarship monies will be sent directly to the student. High school applicants should apply during their final semester of high school.

HOW WILL MY APPLICATION BE VERIFIED?

Before the scholarship award is dispersed, the scholarship winner will be asked to provide a copy of their official transcript and proof of current college enrollment and/or acceptance.

HOW CAN I CONTACT YOU WITH QUESTIONS?

If you have any questions about the scholarship, feel free to use our contact us form in the bottom-right hand corner of the website. You can also contact us by emailing scholarship@skincareox.com

GEM FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

GEM FULL FELLOW

GEM ASSOCIATE FELLOW

GEM UNIVERSITY FELLOWSHIPS

IS THE GEM FELLOWSHIP RIGHT FOR ME?

GEM offers MS and Ph.D. level students an outstanding opportunity and access to dozens of the top Engineering and Science firms and Universities in the nation. The GEM Fellowship was designed to focus on promoting opportunities for individuals to enter industry at the graduate level in areas such as research and development, product development, and other high level technical careers. GEM also offers exposure opportunities to a number of opportunities in academe.

Eligibility

Under-representation: Candidates are targeted for participation who are members of the following under-represented groups in science and engineering as defined by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics:

- American Indian/Native
- African American/Black
- Hispanic American/Latino

Citizenship: Applicants must be a U.S. citizen or U.S. permanent resident at time of application.

GRE: Applicants are strongly encouraged to take the GRE to qualify for multiple GEM

Member University programs. Applicants will be asked to provide test dates and/or GRE scores when available.

Application deadline: November 15, 2019.

For early consideration: Complete Part I of your application and provide your resume and unofficial transcript by October 1.

University Graduate Program: Applicants must directly apply to a minimum of three (3) GEM Member Universities STEM graduate departments. The deadline to apply to three GEM Member Universities is January 15th OR the relevant STEM graduate department deadline, whichever is earlier. Applicants must be admitted into a GEM Member University graduate program with confirmed department funding support before the GEM Fellowship is awarded.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION BY PROGRAM

MS Engineering Program Applicants:

- must be a senior, or graduate of an accredited engineering or computer science program at the time of application.
- must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.8/4.0.
- must contractually agree to intern for two summers with sponsoring GEM Employer, beginning the Summer after sponsorship.

PhD Program Applicants:

- must be a senior, masters student, or graduate of an accredited engineering or applied science program at the time of application.
- must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0/4.0.
- must contractually agree to intern with a GEM Employer member the Summer immediately after sponsorship.

PORTABLE FELLOWSHIPS

Applying to Graduate School

The portable fellowships are valid at only GEM member universities. The cost of application to graduate school is borne by the student (please check the GEM University Membership listing to see if your graduate institution of interest offers STEM graduate application waivers to GEM applicants). Each GEM Member University has its own entrance requirements, and students are accepted on their own merits. GEM member universities are not obligated to admit a student. It is advisable to apply for admission to several of the member universities at the same time application is made to the GEM program, but no later than the university's published deadline.

Requirement to apply to a minimum of 3 GEM Member Universities

GEM fellowship applicants must apply to a minimum of 3 GEM Member Universities, directly to the relevant STEM department by their published deadline. Applying directly to 3 GEM Member Universities for admission to a STEM graduate program by their posted deadline is an ABSOLUTE REQUIREMENT. If the applicant is currently matriculating in a STEM graduate program, where they are seeking financial support, and the GEM Member University (of current graduate matriculation) is willing to provide in writing willingness to support as a GEM Fellow if selected, then and only then is the requirement to apply to a minimum of 3 GEM Member Universities waived.

Confirmation of GEM Fellowships by GEM Member Universities

Member universities may have additional requirements for the acceptance of GEM fellows (e.g. requirements for obtaining in-state residency, requirements for acceptance of teaching or research assistantship, budgeted number of GEM Fellows per academic year). Please check with the particular graduate school of interest to you. Admission into a GEM Member University's STEM graduate department does not directly translate to confirmation of the use of the GEM Fellowship at the participating GEM Member University. At the time of selection, a GEM Member University Representative will confirm in writing if the GEM Fellowship can be used at their institution. The GEM Member University graduate program must confirm willingness to fund an applicant as a GEM Fellow, prior to the GEM Fellowship being awarded.

LENGTH OF FELLOWSHIP

MS engineering fellows are expected to complete their master's degree coursework in four semesters or six quarters. Ph.D. engineering and science fellows receive support up to the fifth year of their PhD program. After the first year of support through GEM, fellows are required to accept a research or teaching assistantship, or other financial support through the GEM member university.

TERMS OF FELLOWSHIP

Fellows are required to attend a GEM Member University, maintain satisfactory progress toward an MS or PhD degree, abide by GEM guidelines, and abide by the guidelines of the GEM Employer sponsor.

CODE OF CONDUCT

If confirmed as a GEM Fellow, you will be expected to conduct yourself in a professional manner at all times. The following internship criteria must be followed to assure continuation of your GEM Fellowship:

- You are required to work as a summer intern for your sponsoring employer for 10-12 weeks during the Summer(s).
  - While on assignment to your sponsoring employer, you are governed by that employer's employment policies, practices, procedures, dress code, and/or standards of conduct. To avoid any misunderstanding, it is recommended that you obtain clarification regarding such matters from your employer when you begin your assignment.
  - Your performance while on assignment as an intern will be measured by your employer's performance measurement process. You must receive a satisfactory (or better) performance rating for the period of your internship to retain your fellowship. Failure to do so will result in dismissal as a GEM Fellow.
  - You are required to prepare a summary report explaining your internship experience, and provide a copy of that report to your supervisor and to the GEM Office no later than 2 weeks after the completion of your internship.
  - You must meet, as requested, with the GEM staff member(s) during site visits to your employer.
  - You must keep both the GEM Office and your sponsoring employer apprised, at all times, of your current e-mail, address and telephone number. You can do this by keeping your eGEM applicant account up to date.

Adhering to this code of conduct will help you optimize your internship experience, and you will continue the tradition of GEM fellows being regarded as a very select group of students who meet the highest possible academic and personal standards.

TUITION AND STIPEND

GEM MS Engineering Fellows receive a stipend, which may be supplemented by the GEM Member University. The funding for the MS Award is for up to four semesters or up to six quarters.

The funding for the PhD programs is up to the 5th year of the PhD program. One year is funded through the GEM National Office (via sponsorship from a GEM Employer and the GEM University). During the remaining years of the PhD program (up to the fifth year), GEM Fellows are funded at the same level of other funded doctorate students in the department. GEM Fellows may be expected to accept a teaching or research assistantship. GEM Universities may place additional requirements on GEM Fellows, such as requiring that GEM Fellows obtain in-state residency. GEM Fellows must check with individual GEM Member University representatives to determine if additional requirements exist at that university.

MS Engineering Fellowship Program

- $16,000 total stipend over the entire Master's program (remitted in payments by terms to the matriculating GEM Member University)

- Full tuition and fees at GEM Member University

PhD Engineering/Science Fellowship Program

- $16,000 stipend applied to one academic year
- Additional stipend (assistantships, grants, other stipend dollars) support from GEM Member University to bring the stipend amount up to the funding level of other funded PhD students in that department
- Full tuition and fees up to the fifth year of the PhD program

PAYMENT OF STIPEND

Students receive their stipend in accordance with each GEM University's payment schedule, and may be paid in weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly, or monthly installments. Stipend payments typically begin about one month after the student arrives on campus. Thus, GEM Fellows are advised to retain sufficient funds from their summer internship stipends to cover anticipated initial expenses (e.g., travel to the GEM University, books, supplies, etc.).

To begin receiving the stipend, GEM Fellows are required to meet with their GEM University Representative, to submit internship self-evaluations, graduate program plan, and updated transcripts at the end of each graduate term on their eGEM account.

SUMMER SCHOOL VS. INTERNSHIP

As a rule, students cannot substitute summer school for their internship obligation. However, this requirement may be waived under special circumstances, such as early graduation with the intent of working full-time for the sponsoring company. Written requests for a waiver must be made to the GEM Employer and the GEM National Office several months before the summer employment is scheduled to begin.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Upon written approval from the GEM Employer, GEM University, and GEM National Office, a student may obtain a leave of absence from the GEM Fellowship Program. The Fellow must re-enroll within the terms of the agreed upon arrangement.

WITHDRAWAL

A GEM Fellow must secure prior written approval from the GEM National Office to withdraw from the GEM Fellowship Program. If an enrolled GEM Fellow drops out of the academic program before the school term has ended, the GEM Fellow may be liable for full or partial restitution of stipend, tuition and fee payments.

GROUNDINGS FOR TERMINATION

The National GEM Consortium reserves the right to terminate a GEM Fellow's appointment and stipend payment immediately for violation of the terms of the appointment or for misconduct. Either an unsatisfactory progress report from the University Member or an unsatisfactory performance report from the Employer Member where the student is assigned may be considered grounds for termination. Any student terminated for gross misconduct, negligence, or non-performance will be considered to have violated their agreement with the National GEM Consortium and will be ineligible for future consideration.

NOTE ON TAXABILITY OF FELLOWSHIP MONIES

All students receiving fellowships or other graduate assistance funds should be advised that these monies may be subject to local, state or federal taxes. All GEM Fellows should contact the appropriate taxing authority for further information.

MEDICAL EXPENSES

GEM Fellows are encouraged to take advantage of medical insurance made available to them by their Graduate School. Most Universities do not include medical expenses in tuition and fees. The cost for these expenses can be paid out of the fellowship stipend or summer earnings.

Application Instructions

Thank you for your interest in The National GEM Consortium's graduate engineering and science fellowship programs.

You may register and begin the application process via eGEM, GEM's online application system.

If you have started an application, log in to retrieve it. Application deadline: November 15, 2019.

For early consideration: Complete Part I of your application and provide your resume and unofficial transcript by October 1.

iVein® Health & Wellness Scholarship

Attending college can be stressful and taxing – often affecting students’ health and wellness. Researchers at Auburn University followed 131 students over four years of college and found that a whopping 70% gained weight by graduation (an average of 12, and up to 37 pounds). The overall percentage of students found to be overweight increased from 18% to 31%. The researchers noted gains in body fat composition and waist circumference.

IVC (iVein.com), the trusted leader in preventing and treating vein disease, understands the importance of learning and practicing healthy habits during the formative college years and is offering the iVein® Health and Wellness Scholarship to reward students who are committed to a lifetime of healthy habits.

Your Money Geek Scholarship

Your Money Geek team is well aware of the huge expense related to higher education, with many of us having been involved in it ourselves. While tuition at colleges and universities continues to rise, students and their families are often left with significant financial responsibilities to overcome.

To assist students passionate about pursuing a degree in Journalism, Your Money Geek is proud to sponsor an annual $1,000 college scholarship essay contest. Details about the contest and how to apply are below. Further, our aim is to double this amount for next year's program.

Scholarship Amount

The scholarship amount is $1000 and it will be awarded to one student for their education expenses.

Who is Eligible for the Scholarship?

In order to participate in the scholarship contest, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Must be currently attending or planning to attend a college or university during the 2019-2020 academic year.
- Must be in good academic standing with your current educational institution
- For applicants under 18, you must have permission from a parent or legal guardian
- Has a minimum 3.0 GPA (on a 4.0 scale)
- Must apply to the contest via email and provide your name and the name of the institution you are attending or plan to attend

How to Apply for the Scholarship?

Applying for the scholarship is easy. We have intentionally made the application process very simple so the maximum number of students can apply for it. Only one winner will be selected.

Here are the steps to apply for the scholarship program:

- Write an essay of 1200+ words on the topic “Personal finance myths that may derail your retirement”
- You must submit your essay on or before December 31, 2019.
- All applications should be sent to Michael [a] YourMoneyGeek [dot] com, in a Word format only. PDFs or Link to Google Docs will not be accepted.
- You should mention your full name, your university name, phone number, and email address in the scholarship application.
- Make sure your essay is unique and creative.
- Plagiarism will not be tolerated, and if we have found that you have copied the article from some other source then your application will be immediately rejected.
- You should not provide any other information other than that mentioned above.
- After the application deadline has passed, our team will judge your essay on creativity, the value you have provided, and its thoughtfulness.
- The winners will be announced on January 15, 2020 and the winner will be notified by email.

How Will Applications be reviewed?

Our team will manually review each article/application submitted and list the winner after the deadline date.

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE TRANSDISCIPLINARY POSTDOCTORAL TRAINING PROGRAM IN OBESITY AND CARDIOVASCULAR DISEASE

Obesity is an area of critical public health concern, as it is associated with significant cardiovascular health risks and the onset of cardiovascular disease.

This training program at Washington University School of Medicine recruits highly-qualified pre- and postdoctoral trainees from diverse backgrounds across disciplines and places them within transdisciplinary mentoring teams with faculty members who are leading researchers in the fields of obesity and cardiovascular disease prevention and treatment.

These training experiences produce scientists with the transdisciplinary research skills necessary to address the complex problems of weight and eating disorders and cardiovascular disease prevention and treatment across the lifespan.

Washington University is currently recruiting talented postdoctoral trainees from diverse scientific backgrounds (e.g., genetics, molecular cell biology, psychology, social work, public health, neurosciences) that are interested in developing the transdisciplinary research skills necessary to address the complex problems of obesity and cardiovascular disease prevention and treatment across the lifespan.

We strongly encourage underrepresented minority scientists to apply. To apply for this fellowship opportunity, please click the link below:

The Great Scholarship Program

Great Clips has a question for future stylists when they ask: Who says you cannot soar with shears? Did you know that Great Clips offers cosmetology education scholarships to aspiring cosmetologists? In fact, Great Clips awards over $100,000 in scholarships and professional tools to cosmetology students every year! These scholarships are offered in memory of Alice Madden Barton, a woman of great character who was the mother of Great Clips CEO Rhoda Olsen and Chairman Ray Barton.

Who is eligible to apply for the Great Scholarship Program?

All applicants must:

- Be at least 16 years of age
- Receive written permission from parent or guardian to accept the award if under 18 years old
- Enrolled in a cosmetology school at the time of application
- Be legal residents of the United States

The application requires an original written response to the following question:

“What is exciting to you about a career in cosmetology? Why?”

After the applicant submits the form, the application will be sent to a local salon owner for consideration. A local Great Clips salon owner will contact you if you are selected for a scholarship award.

How much is the Great Scholarship Program worth?

Award recipients will have two choices in regard to their award:

- A check sent directly to the cosmetology school or financial institution involved
- A professional tool kit, valued at up to $500, that includes a blow dryer, sheers, and other tools

Deadline and Additional Information

The deadline to apply for the Great Scholarship Program is January 31, 2020 by 11:59PM EST.

Award winners will find out their good fortune between March 31, 2020 and May 31, 2020!
