RE: TERO Certification for Indian Preference and
Registration in Construction and Vendor Goods and Services Categories

Dear Media Fusion, LLC:

The Tribal Employment Rights Office (TERO) received your Indian Initial Application on April 11, 2019. TERO has reviewed your application and report, including accompanying documents, to determine if your business is eligible for Indian Preference on 2019 Tribal bids.

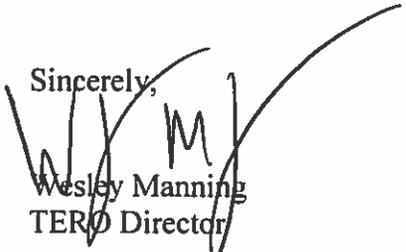

The certification and subsequent registration process includes the determination of how to categorize your business for ownership, whether the business meets the requirements for certification, and what category is appropriate for the construction or vendor goods and services registration of your business.

Enclosed is your Certificate for Indian Preference that you will need to provide with bid proposals to support your certification for Indian Preference and registration categories.

Your company's certification and registration will be provided to Tribal Government and all Tribal entities. If you have any questions regarding the certification or registration of your business, please contact me at the TERO Office at (251) 368-9136, Ext. 2027.

In accordance with Section 33-2-7(c), the Indian Business Owner(s) may file an appeal within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of this decision for certification and/or registration by requesting a hearing before the Tribal Regulatory Commission regarding a preference category or the denial of an application.

Sincerely,

Wesley Manning
TERO Director
