February was an informative and busy month. Our Tribe had Tribal Council representatives at USET (United South and Eastern Tribes) and NCAI (National Congress of American Indians) both of which were held in Washington, D.C. Conferences such as these are critical for the Tribe and allow us to maintain good relations with others throughout Indian Country and lawmakers.

These times away from my home are far from glamorous (I definitely got in my 10,000 steps and my feet were aching from walking up and down Capitol Hill!), but I’ve realized since being elected to Tribal Council in 2006 just how important these meetings are to our success as a sovereign nation. Especially now that we have a new President, it is of the utmost importance that we commit to educating new staff and members within his administration about Native issues. Further, we must continue strengthening the relationships that we have made over the years with those in D.C. who decide on laws that directly affect us as Tribal Members of a federally-recognized Tribe.

The Poarch Creek Indians have had our share of struggles, fights, and hard times that we endured to attain our federal recognition and sovereignty. We will always experience challenges, but please know that I, along with other Tribal Council Members, fight to protect our rights as Native Americans.

March is a month that is very near and dear to my heart for several reasons. Not only is March the month of my birth, but it is also considered National Women’s History Month. Additionally, International (Working) Women’s Day is celebrated on the 8th and focuses on women workers and advancing women’s rights in politics, society, and the workforce.

As a woman who has worked in business and now in politics as the first woman Tribal Chair for the Poarch Creek Indians, I can attest to the struggles and challenges that occur in both settings. Unfortunately, there are many double standards that still exist in these worlds. However, I have found that the best solutions come from a setting that is balanced and considers many varying viewpoints and perspectives regardless of gender. And, I for one really do enjoy working with my fellow Council Members both male and female. But, always remember, it’s not just one person’s decision that creates change – it takes a majority. Change happens through teamwork and by everyone working together for the betterment of the Tribe.

In more recent years I have noticed an upward trend in the amount of women within leadership, and it is encouraging and refreshing to see the number of women leaders that are emerging in many different fields. I encourage everyone regardless of your gender or background to continually strive towards your purpose and passion in life.

In closing, I ask that you all remember your leaders at all levels, your community, and your Tribe in your prayers.

May God continue to bless you and the Poarch Band of Creek Indians.

In love,
Stephanie A. Bryan, Tribal Chair/CEO

March (Tasahcuce) 2017
The new year of 2017 is already off to a busy start with many changes happening every day. Some, if not all, of the changes will directly affect us as a Tribe such as the new GWE program and our new President and his Administration.

We realize that you have had copious amounts of information given to you about the GWE program, but there is a very small chance that our Elders will be audited. I want to remind each of you that we as Tribal Leaders cannot control the actions of the Federal Government. Since we are the only Tribe in Alabama implementing this program, I strongly encourage each of you to keep your receipts.

I also want to reiterate that with the new President we, as Tribal Leaders, assume responsibility to educate Congress, the Senate, and the new Administration about the operations of our Tribal Government as a whole. You will see a lot of travel in the upcoming months by the Tribal Council but please understand that with the new Administration comes much work on our part to ensure that you, the Tribal Members, are not left out of the process and its impending changes.

I want to also encourage all Tribal Members not living in the community to closely observe the day-to-day operations through the correspondence that is provided to you.

Read all reports and communications that are made available to you from all the entities.

Be aware of major physical changes taking place as well as all of the benefits that we currently provide to you.

We as a Tribe are getting to be an operation so big that we seem to somewhat be losing perspective as to our Federal Recognition and what it means, such as being bound by Federal Law to provide services to all Tribal Members and not just forge ahead to be a powerful economic engine.

In closing, I want to reiterate that there is an election coming in June and each Tribal Member has an obligation to participate. You have an obligation to the Tribe to step up whether it be as a candidate or to simply exercise your God given right and privilege to vote. We have been fortunate in the past to have great participation by candidates as well as you, the General Council.

As always my phone is always on and my door is always open to you.

May 2017 be the year of bigger and greater things to come for each and every one of you.

Eddie L. Tullis

Committee Assignments Reflect Top Priorities

When I am not casting a vote on the floor of the House of Representatives or visiting with groups in my office, a large percentage of my time in Washington is spent serving on committees.

There are currently twenty standing committees in the House, and each member of Congress serves on at least one committee. These committees are where much of the legislative work is actually done.

I am honored to serve on three committees: Armed Services, Education and the Workforce, and Rules. I want to briefly take a look at each of these assignments and outline our top priorities.

The Armed Services Committee has jurisdiction over the entire U.S. military. We focus on everything from procurement of new military equipment to the health care benefits of service members to overall defense strategy.

A top priority of mine on the Armed Services Committee is seapower issues, including building up our nation's naval fleet. I believe a strong Navy is critical in terms of keeping the sea lanes open for commerce and ensuring the American people remain safe and secure. I also use my position on the Armed Services Committee to support the important military shipbuilding projects based on the Gulf Coast.

As a member of the Education and the Workforce Committee, I get to work on policies relating to K-12 education, higher education, workforce training, labor, employment, and pensions. I am especially excited that Chairwoman Virginia Foxx selected me to serve as Chairman of the Subcommittee on Workforce Protections. I really look forward to using this Chairmanship to advance policies that make life easier for our nation's workers.

Finally, I serve on the House Rules Committee. The Rules Committee is different than every other committee in the House, and it is actually one of the oldest and most powerful committees. It is the job of the Rules Committee to prepare bills for debate on the House floor. The Rules Committee is an especially busy committee, but it gives me a unique opportunity to have an input on almost every bill that comes up for a vote in the House.

All told, I believe these committee assignments put me in a strong position to advocate for policies and legislation that are important to families, workers, students, teachers, service members, and small businesses in Southwest Alabama.

I think there's no higher calling in terms of a career than public service, which is a chance to make a difference in people's lives and improve the world.

This month we feature the Primary Care Physicians from the Tribal Health Department. The Primary Care Physicians include Dr. Jamie McKinley, Dr. Karen Flanagan, Dr. Ted Woods, Dr. Stella Von Troil and Physician Assistant Kendi Kirby.

"As your physicians, we welcome all Tribal Members to the Buford L. Rolin Health Clinic." states Dr. Jamie McKinley, Chief Physician/Chief Medical Officer.

"Your Tribal Health Clinic Primary Care Physicians"

The Primary Care staff is pleased to serve the medical needs of Tribal Members and other authorized patients. A wide variety of medical services including, wellness checks, chronic medical care, acute sick visits, pediatric services, immunizations, and minor procedures are offered through the Primary Care clinic.

At the Health Clinic, Primary Care Physicians have access to in-house radiology, laboratory services, physical therapy, behavioral health, pharmacy, and an eye clinic. Our physicians work with these services to bring the best primary health care in the area.

Dr. McKinley, and the other Primary Health Care Physicians, work daily to see that their patients' medical needs are accomplished. When necessary they may have to refer a patient out to a specialist or have testing that is not offered in the Health Department. To do that, they adhere to the Indian Health Services Medical Priority Levels. These levels are managed by the Chief Medical Officer of IHS. Priorities 1 & 2 are paid using IHS funding that is budgeted each year. These include life or limb urgent cases (Priority 1) and preventative management (Priority 2). Priorities 3, 4, & 5 are not covered by IHS and would be your responsibility for co-pay. The priority system does not mean you will not be able to get a referral. It is only used for priority for payments.
Our physicians and physician assistant bring many years of experience in the field of primary care to the Health Department. They look forward to continuing care for the medical needs of the Tribe.

While the weather wasn’t perfect for hunting, that didn’t stop some 30 disabled hunters from doing what they love last weekend at the Poarch Creek Indian Hunting Club. Wheelin’ Outdoor Adventures of Flomaton sponsored the hunt, which is an annual event. There is on average, a couple hunts per year. In fact, last year was the first year the disability hunt was held, and several hunters sported their best camo for the event.

Wheelin’ Outdoor Adventures President Gene White said he decided to get a disability hunt together because it was rare in this neck of the woods. “We thought about trying to help people in this area to have the opportunity to get out and hunt,” White said. “We have a couple to three hunts a year.”

“We talked to them at Wind Creek, and they stepped up real good and let us come over here,” he said. “They decided that they were going to feed everybody.” Hunters hunt based on their level of disability. Some hunters have gun rests.

Around 40 volunteers were on hand to assist the hunters. Hunters from South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Florida and Alabama participated in the disability hunt.

White said this group has grown from its origin. “We started off small with three or four hunters, and the next day, it got bigger and bigger,” he said. “We wanted to get people in the area in it.” In addition to providing the hunting ground, Wind Creek Atmore treated the hunters to a free lunch from its food truck.

With stomp dance regalia ablaze in the colors of fire against the backdrop of the color of night, Dr. Deidra Suwanee Dees spoke from her heart about her own experiences in education to over one-hundred students and faculty in the Claudia Crosby Theatre at Troy University on January 19. Standing with her Harvard dissertation in hand, she said, “You can stand here with your own dissertation one day.” She explained how she overcame financial struggles and difficulties involved with obtaining her academic degrees, and encouraged students to work hard and stick with it.

As the Director/Tribal Archivist of the Office of Archives and Records Management, Dr. Dees was selected as the 2017 McPherson-Mitchell Lecturer in Southern History by Troy University. She provided an archival presentation on the history of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians. She was joined by Tribal Artisan Ms. Carolyn Peterson who displayed her award-winning art pieces in front of the stage. “I personally feel it was a privilege to have been invited to participate in this representation of our Tribe,” said Ms. Peterson.

Troy University Professor Dr. David Carlson said, "It is important, as Alabama begins its bicentennial celebrations, to recognize the contributions the region's indigenous peoples have made to this state's history.” This was the first time a Native American was named as the McPherson-Mitchell Lecturer, he said.

Dr. Dees presented the audience with some of the rich history of the Tribe from a personal and professional perspective, utilizing archival documents and records in a slideshow. She was able to do this so thoroughly because of her in-depth study and personal interviews with our elders in writing her dissertation. She interviewed Marie and Otha Martin, Roberta McGhee Sells, Eddie Tullis, Buford Rolin, Ruby Barnhill, and Gail Thrower.

Dr. Dees pointed out the significance of Tribal leaders cultivating political relationships with American Presidents from the time of Chief Alexander McGillivray, to Chief Calvin McGhee, and to current Tribal Chair Stephanie A. Bryan.

Ms. Peterson pointed out, “Dr. Dees used her gifts not to elevate herself but to elevate the Tribe.”

Dr. Dees dazzled the audience with pictures from our Archives of Chief Calvin McGhee with President John F. Kennedy and of Tribal Chair Stephanie A. Bryan.

Our Tribal Chair expressed her sentiments to Dr. Dees saying, “Great job and congratulations!”

Why Birthday Wishes Are No Longer Published In The Poarch Creek News

Over the past few years the newsletter has grown from just a few pages to several issues that have exceeded 90 pages. As the newsletter has grown, so has the number of birthday wishes submitted, some issues having as many as four to six pages of birthday wishes.

We attempted to design the pages to accommodate the number of wishes received. To get the maximum number of wishes on a page, the space available for each birthday was minimum and the accompanying photos were sometimes difficult to see with clarity. To remedy this, we redesigned the birthday wish layout, allowing more photo space and increasing the word count. This change also contributed to the number of pages of birthday wishes.

In an effort to reduce the ever increasing cost of the newsletter, several changes were made beginning with the January 2017 issue. We changed the submission deadline from the 5th of the month to the first business day of the month; we have limited the total number of pages per issue, and we have removed the Birthday Wishes from the newsletter.

Although we no longer publish the birthday wishes in the newsletter, we wanted to continue the publication of birthday wishes. Our solution? Post them on the web site and official Tribal social media accounts.

Tribal Members may visit www.pci-nsn.gov/birthdays each month to see who is celebrating a birthday. The Birthday List will include the names of all Tribal Members who will be celebrating a birthday that month, not just those whose information has been submitted by family or friends.

The Birthday List will be posted on the web site at the same time the latest issue of the newsletter is posted, customarily on or around the 17th of the month prior to the month of publication.

If a birthday wish has been submitted, an icon will appear beside their name. If you click on the icon, it will take you to their Birthday Card. This Birthday Card may be printed, saved to your computer, or shared on social media.

If a birthday wish has been submitted for a Tribal Member spouse, First Generation, or someone living in a Tribal household, this submission has been included and a Birthday Card has been generated as well.

The birthday information is also posted on the official Tribal social media accounts: facebook.com/PoarchBandofCreekIndians; twitter.com/PoarchCreek; and www.instagram.com/poarchbandofcreekindians.

Tribal Members are still encouraged to submit Birthday Wishes, they will simply be posted on the web site and social media instead of being published in the newsletter.

As always, Birthday Wishes may be submitted the month before the birthday, the month of the birthday, or the month after the birthday. Please keep established deadlines in mind when submitting your birthday wish.

Birthday Wishes are no longer published in the newsletter. They are now posted on the Tribal web site at http://pci-nsn.gov/birthdays and will be featured on the Tribe's social media pages the day of their birthday. The birthday link is a new and exciting addition to the web site!

Please visit www.pci-nsn.gov/birthdays each month to see who is celebrating a birthday. Each month the Birthday List will include the names of all Tribal Members who will be celebrating a birthday that month. The Birthday List will be posted on the web site at the same time the latest issue of the newsletter is posted, customarily on or around the 17th of each month.

If a birthday wish has been submitted, an icon will appear beside their name. Click on the icon and it will take you to their Birthday Card. This Birthday Card may be printed, saved to your computer, or shared on social media.

If a birthday wish has been submitted for a Tribal Member spouse, First Generation, or someone living in a Tribal household, this submission has been included and a Birthday Card has been generated as well.

If you wish to submit a birthday wish, the criteria remains the same with the exception that submission deadlines are the first business day of the month prior to the month of publication.

Thank You

The family of Larry and Carmine Gibson would like to say a heartfelt thanks to the Gospel Lighthouse Church, the Tribal Council, Wind Creek Hospitality, and all others who participated or donated during the recent benefit for cancer victim Carmine Gibson.

We cannot say the words sufficient enough to express our gratitude for the love and kindness that has been shown to us.

Poarch is so much more than a community, it is a family and we are proud to be a part of the family.

Hello everyone. My name is Donna Koehrsen. I am the Community/Mentor Coordinator for the Poarch Band of Creek Indians Boys & Girls Club (B&G Club). January was National Mentoring Month and every year we hold an event to honor our mentors. This year we held a Mentor Banquet on January 27th at the Wind Creek Casino ballroom. We were recognizing the people who had mentored during 2016 and are still currently mentoring in 2017. We had 15 active mentors during 2016 but have had two more mentors sign up since the first of this year. We had 40 active mentees and the numbers are constantly increasing.

At the 2017 Mentor Banquet I gave a little speech about our Native American Mentor program, then called up the Mentors to give them a certificate of recognition for their dedication to the program. Mrs. Arelene Mack and Mrs. Stephanie Agerton were recognized for five years of dedication to the program. They have been a part of the program since the B&G Club first opened in 2011.

The National Native American Mentoring Program is a site based program that takes place through the Tribe’s B&G Club. This program allows Mentors/Mentees (Matches) to participate in fun and engaging activities in a supervised and safe environment. Matches meet for an average of one hour a week. Most meetings take place at the Mentor portable located behind the Teen Center. All Mentors are members of the community. Several of our Mentors are staff of the B&G Club and the others are Tribal Government staff. They all generally meet with their mentees from 4:00 pm - 5:00 pm during our club hours. Some of our staff at the club mentor through the archery program, some mentor at the Old Sail Center, the Old School House and in the Pickrell House office. During our meetings with our mentees we talk, play games, do crafts, listen to music, play sports, but most importantly we bond with each other. It is such a great program and it allows us to spend a little one-on-one time with some of the children from the club. Some mentors have just one mentee and others mentor a small group of children. The average mentor signs on for a year but many matches last longer and some may last less due to people’s schedules. Either way, the mentees really enjoy their time spent with their mentor.

The National Native American Program was started in 2011 when the Poarch Band of Creek Indians Boys & Girls Club first opened. This program is funded by two OJP grants that are awarded yearly. The Tribe helps fund any additional needs for the program.

If anyone is interested in our Native American Mentoring Program they can contact me by cell phone at 251-359-6890, or by email at dkoehrsen@pci-nsn.gov or in the office at 251-368-9136 ext. 2112. We are always in need of more mentors, especially male mentors.

Kevin McGhee’s educational goals started out simple. His plan was to complete a Certificate in Accounting Technology. He was very proud of that accomplishment and decided he wanted to continue his education.

Educational funding was made available to the Tribal Members, so Kevin decided to go for it. He completed his Associates Degree in Science (Cum Laude) at Jefferson Davis Community College in 2011, his Bachelor of Business Administration at Faulkner University in 2012, and his Master of Business Administration from Faulkner University in 2016. “Funding from the Tribe made it easier and financially stress free for me to continue my education,” said Kevin.

Kevin is currently the Entertainment Center Director at Wind Creek Atmore. His goals are to use his skills and knowledge daily in his work life to better serve the Tribe and Tribal family, with possibly one day serving as Tribal Chair. Kevin served on the Tribal Council from 2013-2016.

Attending school as an adult can be challenging and a bit overwhelming. Sitting in a classroom setting with fellow students who are recent high school graduates was somewhat intimidating for Kevin.

He had to question himself, if he should really be in school or should he just be working to make ends meet. Kevin chose to focus his efforts on the future and push forward to greater goals, overcoming these moments of insecurity.

Tawana McGhee, Kevin’s wife, was his rock through his educational journey. According to Kevin, she was always willing to give him the time to put towards his work and school assignments; she was always there to cheer him on at the completion of each goal and degree.

Raising a family, working full time, and attending school can be stressful on an individual and on a family. Having her support made all of this possible.

Kevin wants to encourage anyone who is currently working towards a degree, thinking of returning to school, or beginning school as an adult student.

“You may feel overwhelmed and frustrated, and feel that you are not doing as well as you think you should. Just hang in there and you will be greatly rewarded and have a feeling of accomplishment when you have the opportunity to walk across the stage of your College/University, earning the degree you worked so hard for.”

Thank you Kevin and congratulations on your MANY successes!

New “No Show” Policy Effective March 1, 2017

To help ensure that appointments are available for all patients in need of care the Health Clinic has implemented a policy to deter “No-Shows”.

Any patient with three (3) No-Shows within a six (6) month time period will be placed on a “same-day call status” for a period of six (6) months. Any patient on “same-day call status” will not be allowed to schedule appointments in advance, and must call the day they want to be seen by the physician and ask if there is an available appointment. If there is no available appointment, then the person would have to call the next day, and so forth, until there is an available same day appointment.

At the end of the “same-day call status”, a patient will be eligible for scheduling appointments in advance, and the number of No-Shows for the patient will reset to zero.

PHARMACY REMINDER:

When calling the pharmacy for your medications to be refilled, PLEASE have the following ready:

1. The name of the drug - OR
2. Your prescription number -OR

Swim Team Competes in 2017 SE GPAC Winter Invitational

The Poarch Creek Swim Team recently competed in the 2017 SE Greater Pensacola Aquatic Club (GPAC) Winter Invitational in Pensacola, FL. The swimmers did amazing, dropping time and setting personal best times in all of their events. Among the swimmers were Kylee Langham, Kamryn Langham, Cash Griffey, and Karaghan O’Barr. Please take the time to congratulate these swimmers on an outstanding job.

Kylee Langham set new personal best times in the 100 yard Freestyle, 25 yard Backstroke, 50 yard Breaststroke, 25 yard Butterfly, 100 yard Individual Medley, 25 yard Freestyle, and 50 yard Freestyle events. She placed 1st in the 8 & Under 50 yard Butterfly, and 25 yard Butterfly; and 2nd in the 8 & Under 100 yard Freestyle, 100 yard Individual Medley, 25 yard Freestyle, and 50 yard Freestyle. Kylee would go on to finish second overall in the 8 & Under Girls age group category. Kamryn Langham had an amazing weekend winning heats in most of her events. She finished in the top 8 in the 9-10 year old Girls age group category that included 50 swimmers from all different swim clubs. She dropped in time and set new personal best times for herself, and is getting closer to qualifying for Southeastern in Auburn, AL at the end of February.

Cash Griffey zoomed through his events placing in the top 7 in the 8 & Under Boys 25 yard Freestyle and 50 yard Freestyle and dropped time on both of them. “He has the drive and commitment in his swimming that every swimmer should have. Cash has been swimming since he was 5 years old and has gotten better with each new swim season,” Coach Sarah Allen said.

Karaghan O’Barr is a new swimmer and has shown that with a little hard work anything is possible at just 5 years old. Karaghan dropped time on both of the events that she swam at the meet.

Our team also placed 4th overall in the 10 & Under Girls 200 yard Medley Relay which included; Kamryn Langham, Kylee Langham, Callie Kent, and Karaghan O’Barr.

If you see these young swimmers, congratulate all of them and let them know how proud we are of them!

The Team’s next meet will be March 3-5, 2017 in Pensacola, Florida. At the University of West Florida Aquatic Center. This meet will host the Region 4 Championships and will also serve as the 8 & Under Southeastern Championship meet.

WHAT IS VISCERAL FAT?

BY SPENCER TATUM
Advantage Training Director of Training

If your waistband feels a little tight right now, this article is for you. The thing is, that tugging feeling is more than just annoying and uncomfortable. It’s also a big indicator of your overall health and a predictor of major health risks.

What exactly are we talking about here? We’re talking about visceral fat.

What, exactly, is visceral fat?

It’s a form of gel-like fat that’s wrapped around major organs, including the liver, pancreas and kidneys. If you have a protruding belly and large waist, that’s a clear sign you’re storing dangerous visceral fat.

While it’s most noticeable and pronounced in some individuals, anyone can have visceral fit, many without even knowing it. Completing an InBody at Poarch Recreation will help you know your personal visceral fat score.

We know storing excess fat is unhealthy, but visceral fat is especially dangerous to your health. These fat cells do more than just sit in your belly and cause... your pants to feel tight — they also change the way your body operates.

These are some of the risks associated with having high visceral fat:

• Higher Risk for Heart Disease
• Higher Risk for Diabetes
• Higher Risk of Alzheimer’s
• Certain types of cancers -- like colorectal and breast cancer
• More likely to develop Dementia and Depression

How can you reduce visceral fat?

Just Move: Studies have shown that you can help trim visceral fat or prevent its growth with both aerobic activity (such as brisk walking) and strength training (exercising with weights). In a study at the University of Alabama, Birmingham, dieting women lost an average of 24 pounds and reduced both visceral and subcutaneous fat, with or without aerobic or strength-training exercise. However, in the following year, those who maintained an exercise program maintained their visceral fat loss, while those who didn’t exercise showed a 33% average increase in visceral fat. Exercise is the fastest way to lower visceral fat. Engage in at least 30 minutes of moderate-intensity activity most days and you’ll see your visceral fat go down.

Limit Sugar: According to the American Heart Association the maximum daily allowance for sugar is 36 grams per day for men and 24 grams per day for women. By lowering your sugar intake and staying close to this daily limit, your body will look for other sources of energy and start to break down your stored fat and use it for fuel.

Sleep. When you sleep 7-8 hours each night, you are helping your body to speed up the visceral fat burning process. When you sleep less than this, your body will produce higher levels of cortisol, which contributes to stored visceral fat. So rest up.

Meditate. Visceral Fat and stress are undeniably linked. Breathe, relax, and spend 10 to 30 minutes a day getting your mind as far away from your worries as you can. Practice this. Like most things, it won’t come easily at first. Spending time not thinking about your worries doesn’t mean you are ignoring them. It means you will come back to them with a clearer mind and more energy to solve them. Having this time will help regulate the stress hormones that negatively effect visceral fat.

A few small shifts in your exercise, nutrition and stress management patterns will affect your visceral fat in a positive way. Try adopting these habits and build from there. Focusing on visceral fat loss will mean big shifts in your overall health and wellbeing. Before you know it, you’ll have decreased your risk of disease, your pants will feel looser, and you may find yourself inspired to do the things you’ve always wanted to do. - Spencer
TERO Meets With OFCCP

The TERO Office met with the Office of Federal Contracts Compliance Programs (OFCCP) on January 12, 2017. Our meeting with OFCCP was an update on the Federal Courthouse being built in Mobile, Alabama. During the meeting we also discussed the importance of giving notice of federal contracts awarded as soon as possible to give Tribal members laborer opportunities and Tribal member owned businesses bid opportunities.

We also had a meeting with the University of Alabama on January 12, 2017. The meeting’s focus was “How to start a new business”. We encourage anyone who is interested in starting a new business to give us a call. We can provide resources that will help you determine if a new business is a feasible option for you and we can also provide resources on how to start a new business.

We are also considering developing a TERO Preferred Business List for Tribal Members who own at least 51% of a business. Please note, this list would not provide your business with 10% preference (like TERO certification), but we are trying to gauge the interest in such a list in order to increase Tribal bid opportunities for non-certified Tribal member owned businesses. So if you are a Tribal member that owns at least 51% of a business and you are not interested in being TERO certified, but would like an opportunity to receive bid opportunities in your area of expertise, we would like to know who you are and the services you can provide and most importantly if you would like TERO to create such a list. We also encourage any Tribal member who owns at least 51% of a business to call us and inquire about the benefits of being TERO Certified and being on the TERO Certified Business List.

Lastly, we have more details regarding upcoming employment opportunities at OWA in Foley, Alabama. (Note the staffing numbers have not been finalized and are subject to change at any time) The majority of OWA positions will not come until late February, March, and April time frame. It’s all dependent on the construction timeline. OWA anticipates around 450 position to begin with about a 60/40 split of full-time and part-time employees. The majority of openings will consist of ride operators, retail clerks, and food & beverage positions.

Current OWA employment opportunities can be found at http://visitowa.com/employment/.

You can also use the links below to check for other current employment opportunities at Wind Creek Hospitality (Corporate), Wind Creek Casino Atmore, Wind Creek Wetumpka, Wind Creek Montgomery, Tribal Government, Creek Indian Enterprises (CIE), and the Tribal Gaming Commission.

Stop and think for a minute about how much water you use in a day. From brushing your teeth, to washing your hands. Each person uses about 80-100 gallons of water per day. Replacing your kitchen and bathroom water faucets and toilets with water-efficient fixtures will greatly reduce your family’s water consumption. Flushing the toilet uses the largest amount. Many older toilets can average 4-6 gallons per flush. The newer water efficiency toilets use around 1.6 gallons per flush. If and when you decide to replace your faucets, look really close at the head. You might see something like “1.0 gpm”, which means that this faucet head will allow water to flow at a maximum of 1.0 gallons per minute. Some states have laws that specify that water faucets, toilets, and showers only allow a certain amount of water flow per minute. Changing out fixtures and toilets in your home is a wonderful way to conserve water and reduce your water bill with little effort on your part.

Site work has begun on The Safe Drinking Water Revolving Fund Project. PCI Utilities was pleased to receive grant funding to construct a new administration building for Utilities staff with a design that is more customer friendly for making or dropping off utility payments. Unsuitable soil conditions were encountered at the building pad site and required additional excavation but has been remedied. The renovations to the existing lab have been completed as well as the civil work for the building pad. Construction of the building is underway.

The Canoe Water Improvements Project is nearing completion. We are replacing 5 sections of failing water lines in the Canoe community. The Contractor is on site daily and we forecast project completion by the end of March 2017. Grant funding has been obtained for the Sanitary Sewer Structure Lining Project (Manhole Lining Project). 12 to 15 deteriorating manholes have been identified that will be repaired and lined in an effort to reduce Inflow and Infiltration. The lining of these man holes will result in a significant reduction of maintenance and operational requirements while extending the service life of existing sewer infrastructure. IHS is in the process of finalizing the specifications to prepare bid packages.

A UV system was installed at Tullis Manor in the 2nd quarter of 2016 for the treatment and disinfection of water. We recently completed the connection from Tullis Manor to the PCI water system making Tullis Manor fully supplied by PCI water and no longer dependent on Freemanville.

The PCI Utilities Authority would like to remind all of our garbage customers to please remember the new garbage disposal policies and fines that were implemented February 1, 2017. A customer may be penalized for improper disposal or the placement of bags and unauthorized items in or around the carts and dumpsters. Unauthorized items are medical waste, industrial material, construction material, large items, electronics, or flammable material.

PCI Utilities is excited to announce that Mr. Timothy ‘Bo’ Slate has been promoted to the position of Maintenance Technician. Bo is a longtime employee of the Poarch Creek Indians with extensive knowledge of our current utility systems. Please assist us in congratulating Bo for attaining this well-deserved professional accomplishment.

Plan a weekend road trip and stay with us

A long weekend provides the perfect opportunity to hop into the car and embark on a road trip. Sometimes it doesn’t take an extended vacation to recharge your batteries. A brief change of scenery and venue can make for quite the respite as well. And with many small towns within a decent driving distance in South Alabama, Atmore seems to be the perfect place for a mini vacation.

Muskogee Inn is Atmore’s budget motel of choice for many South Alabama locals. A quick drive over from Fairhope, Foley or even from Pensacola, Fla., Muskogee Inn has all you need to relax and enjoy a long weekend.

Sometimes it’s just nice to lounge in a hotel room and watch movies for a day. But there’s plenty to do outside the hotel as well. Here are some road trip tips to get you started:

* Plan before you drive. Grab a map or GPS and stick to locations that are within reasonable driving distance from home. If you roam too far, you will spend more time behind the wheel than you will enjoying your destination. Locations no more than five to six hours away should suffice, which puts Muskogee Inn in the perfect radius for many in Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Mississippi.

* Get your vehicle in road-trip shape by ensuring it is in good working condition. If your car is scheduled for an oil change, get one before leaving. Top off fluids and be sure that tires are properly inflated. And don’t forget the gas! Creek Convenience Store Atmore and Creek Travel Plaza have low-cost fuel and can accommodate large vehicles.

* Make your long weekend a Saturday through Monday affair. You might find the roads are more congested Friday through Sunday. Simply starting your trip on Saturday and returning on Monday could save you the headache of driving in heavy traffic.

* Scope out low-cost activities at your destination. For example, Magnolia Branch has many inexpensive activities that are fun for families and groups. And the entertainment center at Wind Creek Atmore has an arcade room, a full bowling alley and a movie theater that can provide hours of fun and excitement, all for reasonable prices.

Take advantage of cooler temperatures by planning a weekend road trip.

The trucking industry is a 24/7 job, and it’s one that often gets under appreciated. Truckers are in need of the basics, just like everyone else who is employed in any profession.

At Creek Travel Plaza (CTP), we recognize that and have expanded our diner hours to be open all day, every day. That’s right, the diner is now a 24-hour restaurant.

Truckers come in to CTP at all hours — some arrive at 1 a.m., 2 a.m., 3 a.m. — and they are hungry. Until recently, if they stopped at our truck stop “after hours,” their only food options were snacks from the convenience store side. Now they can sit down and have a good Southern cooked meal as they rest and refuel before getting back out on the road.

“We have been toying with this idea for quite some time,” Diner Manager Candy Stuckey said. “Truckers and travelers of all kinds have told us they wished we stayed open all night, or at least later than 9 p.m. We did a small test run to see how it goes, and the response has been fantastic.”

According to the 2015 Rise of Food Tourism Report, more than a third of tourist spending is on food alone. Night-time driving is increasing for those looking to get a jumpstart on vacations, and for a trucker, practically every meal comes from a truck stop restaurant, even if it’s just fast food, such as Chester’s Chicken. Chester’s can be grabbed quick at Creek Travel Plaza for those in a hurry. But for the truckers who are on a layover, the diner is a more appealing option.

“It’s nice to provide this service to our customers,” Stuckey said. “They are already thanking us and spreading the word that we are open 24 hours. If we can help make their journey more comfortable, then I’ll gladly stay open for them.”
CIEDA highlights its women managers

The workforce in the United States is large, and finding where you fit in often is challenging. For women, it might seem daunting at first, but in recent years, the number of women in the workforce has grown and continues to increase tenfold.

At Creek Indian Enterprises Development Authority, we are happy to employ a vast number of women and are proud to have many women as managers in various departments. However, three businesses under the CIEDA umbrella have women as general managers: Creek Convenience Store Atmore, Creek Travel Plaza and Muskogee Inn.

At Creek Convenience Store Atmore, Susie McCann runs the everyday operations and oversees 12 fulltime employees. McCann is also a Tribal Member and has been at CCSA for about 12 years.

Creek Travel Plaza actually has two female managers. General Manager Tammy Smith is over the entire truck stop, which has 49 employees, but Diner Manager Candy Stuckey oversees the restaurant portion of the business. Stuckey has 26 employees under her management.

General Manager of Muskogee Inn Rochel Martin is the spouse of a Tribal Member and has been running the hotel for eight years. She has been with the hotel for 11.5 years and cares for 22 employees.

Assistant Manager Angel Caraway is a Tribal Member and has been at Muskogee Inn for 18 years.

“We are very proud to have such high level managers be women in our businesses and to be role models for others who aspire to be in leadership roles,” Director of Retail Operations Leo Hammons said. “CIEDA and its businesses are nondiscriminatory enterprises and our diverse employment record reflects that. First and foremost, we want to employ our own Tribal Members, and with operations continuing to grow, we have many opportunities for Tribal Members right here at our enterprises.”
