CHAIRMAN'S CORNER NOVEMBER 2012

I attended the fall USET meeting in Uncasville, CT, October 9-12, 2012. Joining me at the meetings were Robert McGhee and several key staff members.

Veteran's Day is Sunday, November 11, 2012; Tribal Offices will be closed Monday, November 12, 2012. Keep this in mind when making plans to visit the Clinic or other departments that offer services to Tribal Members. Let each of us remember our veterans on this day; those who serve, those who have served, and those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice.

With November comes Pow Wow.

This is our 42nd annual Pow Wow; it has grown immensely since our first homecoming 42 years ago. Tribal Members will be admitted free; gates will open at 10:00 a.m. both Thursday and Friday. Our annual Princess contest will be at 12:00 noon on Thursday so make sure you come out to see these beautiful young girls who have worked so hard to have a chance at representing our Tribe locally as well as throughout Indian Country.

Tuesday, November 6th is Election Day. I encourage all Tribal Members to vote for the candidates of their choice in the national, state, county, and city elections. The right to vote is a freedom that many American men and women have fought and died for; do not let their sacrifice be in vain. Vote on Election Day.

Buford L. Rolin, Tribal Chairman
tlanaster@pci-nsn.gov

Once the newsletter has been posted on-line, you can use the embedded hyperlinks to take you directly to articles/pages, web sites, email forms, etc.

We have incorporated the use of the Muskogee language as much as possible in the newsletter. You will see examples in the numbers of each page as well as on the front cover.

The Minute Insert also includes flyers/information on Medicare Open Enrollment, Native American Heritage Day, and Flu Season Information. This information is not included in the newsletters received by those on the subscription mailing list.

ON THE COVER

The 2011-2012 Princesses Mallory Gibson, Kennedy McGhee, and Breiah Adams invite you to Pow Wow November 22-23, 2012.

Newsletter Deadlines

The Poarch Creek News is generated on a monthly basis by the Government Relations Department of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians at the direction/discretion of the Tribal Council to provide important updates, news, and information to Tribal Members. We reserve the right to edit or refuse any item for publication.

The Poarch Creek News is generated one month prior to the month of publication. The deadline to submit information to be published in the newsletter is the 10th of the month prior to the month of publication. If the 10th falls on a weekend or holiday, the deadline is extended to the next working day.

Due to space limitations, submitted articles should be limited to 500 words or less.

Obituaries/Family Thanks will be published if submitted by the last working day of the second month immediately following the death.

All other deadlines remain the same and are published in the appropriate sections of the newsletter.

TRIBAL MEMBER RECOGNIZED BY NCAIED

The National Center for American Indian Enterprise Development (NCAIED) has announced that four individuals from the United South and Eastern Tribes, Inc (USET) region are recipients of the prestigious national "Native American 40 Under 40" recognition awards. Recipients for 2012 include Tribal Council Chairman Kyle Williams (Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas), U.S. Department of Interior's Office of Indian Energy & Economic Development Program Specialist Rebecca Naragon (Poarch Band of Creek Indians), National Indian Gaming Commission Chief of Staff Paxton Myers (Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians), and USET Executive Director Kitcki A. Carroll (Cheyenne-Arapaho Tribes of Oklahoma).

USET President Brian Patterson praised the group of individuals selected by NCAIED. "USET Leadership is extremely proud of the accomplishments and contributions made by these amazing and deserving individuals. We are proud of each person and how they have served their communities. Our sitting leaders of our great Tribal nations stand tall today with hearts filled with gratitude for the accomplishments of these individuals and the positive impact they make. Our wish is that their path of success will continue. The award is prestigious to these recipients and marks greatness in our USET region. It is also a shining example of accomplishments and leadership for our younger generations to achieve," stated Patterson.

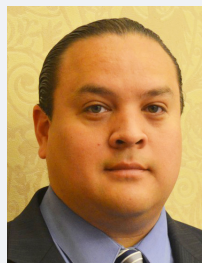

Kyle Williams serves as Chairman of the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas. Prior to being elected to Tribal Council in 2008, Chairman Williams served his people in the Tribal Environmental Office. In addition to his work for the Tribe, he has recently been selected to serve as the Tribal Representative for the Regional Tribal Conservation Advisory Council. He was also instrumental in establishing a Tribal Police Department for the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe. The Department will soon be recognized by the 82nd Texas State Legislature which convenes in January 2013. He has also started a Fitness Program for Tribal employees, chairs the Tribal annual youth conference and serves on various other boards.

2010/11 Class of the Ambassador Leadership Program through Americans for Indian Opportunity (AIO). Rebecca is a member of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians of Alabama (Atmore, Alabama).

Paxton Myers has been named the Harrah's Cherokee Casino and Hotel Vice President of Casino Marketing. He recently served as the Chief of Staff for the National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC). In addition to the NIGC, Myers has worked as the Advisor on Native American Affairs for Michigan Representative (5th District) Dale Kildee, who was serving as the Chairman of the House Native American Caucus. Prior to his service in DC, Myers worked as the Chief of Staff and Governmental Affairs Liaison for Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians Principal Chief Michell A. Hicks. Paxton is a member of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians (Cherokee, North Carolina).

Kitcki A. Carroll has served as Executive Director for USET for the past 2 ½ years. In this role he is directly responsible for overseeing the day to day operations of the organization. He has held various Executive/Senior management positions in the Tribal government and not-for-profit sector over the past 12 years. Additionally, he serves on various workgroups, task forces, and advisory groups within Indian Country. Kitcki is a member of the Cheyenne-Arapaho Tribes of Oklahoma.

The "Native American 40 Under 40" Awards will be presented at the 37th Annual Indian Progress in Business Awards Gala (INPRO), a featured event of RES Oklahoma, from November 14th-15th, 2012, at the Hard Rock Hotel & Casino in Tulsa, OK.

DECEMBER 2012 NEWSLETTER DEADLINES

The deadline to submit information to be published in the newsletter is the 10th of the month prior to the month of publication. If the 10th falls on a weekend or holiday, the deadline is extended to the next business day.

The deadline to submit information for the December newsletter is November 10, 2012. This year the 10th falls on a weekend so the deadline is extended to the next business day, which is Tuesday, November 13, 2012 since Tribal Offices will be closed on Monday, November 12, 2012 in observance of Veterans Day. This extended deadline will severely impact the time required to finalize the development, formatting and proofing of the newsletter.

To meet the established deadlines, we are asking that information for the December newsletter be submitted by Tuesday, November 6, 2012. The official deadline will remain at 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 13, 2012, but we are asking everyone to submit information by November 6th if possible.

We understand that some information will not be available until the last minute, but if you have birthdays, anniversaries, birth announcements, etc. for publication in the December newsletter, please submit this information by Tuesday, November 6, 2012.

NEW TRIBAL MEMBER HEALTH BENEFIT ANNOUNCED

A new health benefit has been approved for all PCI Tribal Members. The benefit is a mail-order maintenance prescription drug program. This mail order program allows members to have maintenance medications delivered to their home. Maintenance medications are drugs taken for ongoing medical conditions like diabetes, high blood pressure and asthma. All members using maintenance medications are eligible for this program at no cost to the member.

The program will be administered by Rx Benefits/Caremark. In August, enrollment forms were mailed to all members, along with details of the program.

This program allows ongoing enrollment; therefore, members may enroll at any time. Once enrollment forms are received, "Welcome Packets" will be mailed directly to the member from Caremark. The packet will contain an explanation of the benefit plan, a card and mail order forms. Members will need to confirm their maintenance drug prescriptions have been written to dispense a 90 day supply in order to receive a 90 day supply via this plan.

For questions or concerns related to this mail-order Maintenance Drug Program, please refer to the Tribal Member Benefits Department (251)368-9136 Ext. 2209.

Hello, My name is Breiah Calleen Adams.
I am the 2011-2012 Poarch Creek Indian
Senior Princess.

Every Thanksgiving for nearly half a century, our tribe has hosted dancers, drum groups and visitors from around the country. It is my honor to invite you to our 42nd Annual Thanksgiving Pow Wow. During this two day event you will have the chance to experience our Poarch Creek culture, see beautiful pow wow dancing, and make memories with your family. I hope you get a chance to eat some of the wonderful southern food we have to offer. Also, if you would like to take a souvenir home or just go shopping, there will be many vendors selling handmade crafts and commercial items as well. I encourage you to be here by noon Thursday when our new Tribal princesses will be crowned on the mound. It would be an honor to spend Thanksgiving with you.

Mvto,
Breiah Calleen Adams

Come enjoy the thrill and excitement of Pow Wow dance competition where hundreds of North America's top dancers compete for cash prizes!

Try Indian roasted corn, roasted over a traditional oak wood fire.

Enjoy tasty traditional mouth watering foods from Mother Earth.

Watch the crowning of the 2012 - 2013 Poarch Band of Creek Indian Tribal Princesses.

Shop for unique gifts at over 100 booths of authentic, hand-made Native American crafts, including beadwork, baskets, pottery, silver, artwork and more! You can also find a great selection of music, books and contemporary jewelry and artwork.

It Is Time To Update Your Tribal Census Information!

Once again it is time to update your household information with a new Tribal Census. In order for the Tribe to continue to serve you to the best of our ability, ensuring that discretionary benefits are administered as promptly as possible, please complete and return the census document which was mailed to you. Please be as accurate as possible when filling out the form and return it to the Tribal Member Benefits Department.

For questions regarding this census, please contact the Tribal Member Benefits Department at (251) 368-9136 ext. 2281, 2209, or 2007.

Education News and Updates

2002 GED Series Closeout

Your future is calling. With the GED® test, you can answer the call!

If you've already started the GED® test, you're almost there. The current version of the GED® test is expiring at the end of 2013 and your scores will expire too if you don't finish and pass the test by then. If you act soon, you won't have to re-take the parts of the test you've already passed.

Don't feel prepared to finish the GED® test? Don't worry—we can help! Even with your busy schedule, you can prepare, plan, and succeed.

Visit www.finishtheGED.com to learn more.

Passing the GED® test is a key to opening doors to college, a better job, and the respect you deserve. Don't miss this chance to turn one small step into your next big opportunity! Finish your GED® test by the end of 2013 and earn your high school credential.

The Plato online GED Tutorial and study materials for preparing for the GED Test are available in the PCI Education Department. Contact Mrs. Billie McGhee at (251)368-9136, ext. 2243 or bmcghee@pci-nsn.gov.

The George Washington University Semester in Washington

Native American Political Leadership Program

The Native American Political Leadership Program (NAPLP) is a full scholarship program to provide Native American undergraduates an opportunity to work in the nation's capital. The students attend classes at George Washington University and participate in hands-on internships and interact with political leaders and policymakers. The purpose of the program is to prepare the next generation of Native American political leaders. NAPLP is a guided, hands-on tour of the workings of the U.S. government. Students will be working with real Washington political professionals.

Each Native American, Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian students whose applications meet the program requirements receive an individual scholarship to cover their tuition, fees, housing, books and airfare to and from Washington, D.C. A small stipend is provided. Participation in internship programs can be a deciding factor in being chosen for placement in graduate schools of your choice and in receiving additional funding for graduate school.

The application is available at <http://semesterinwashington.gwu.edu/naplp/cost-financial-assistance>. The Spring 2013 Program application deadline is November 1, 2012. The program starts January 14, 2013 and ends April 26, 2012. The Summer 2013 Program begins June 3, 2013 and ends July 26, 2013 and the deadline for the summer semester is March 1, 2013. The program staff recommends that students apply early in order to receive priority housing and internship placement.

A Special Thank You

We honor our Veterans for their service today
Those who live and those gone away
From all walks of life they crossed over the sea
They pledged their lives for our country you see

Battles a raging and dug into holes
Shots all around and fires unfold
Nervous and scared fearful times they shared
Nights seemed so long they wonder if anyone cares

Tears and blood flowed together they shed
Never knowing, what lay ahead
Hard times they saw and sights unimaginable
Their lives were changed and many unstable

Their courage and strength carried them through
From God above the only one who knew
Their silent cries for help from above
God heard their prayers and sent them his Love

Some came home, and some did not
Our Savior keeps them in a special spot
Courage and strength they still need today
And a "Thank You" from us for your service those days

Thanks For Love and Support

I wanted to thank everyone for all the food, flowers and condolences given to me and my family during the weeks before my mother's passing and before and after the funeral.

It has been two long hard months for me since my mother passed away on August 30, 2012. I still miss her every moment of the day. I have been trying to keep myself busy and depending a lot on my family to get me through this trying time. Please keep me and my family in your prayers as we continue to grieve a tremendous loss of a wonderful loving lady.

Thank you,
Keesha O'Barr

On behalf of the Ollie & Lavada Rolin family, I would like to say thank you all for coming out to the family reunion. We had a very good turn out and look forward to doing it again next year. May God bless and keep all of you safe until then.

For the hay and the corn and the wheat that is reaped,
For the labor well done, and the barns that are heaped,
For the sun and the dew and the sweet honeycomb,
For the rose and the song and the harvest brought home -
Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving!

For the trade and the skill and the wealth in our land,
For the cunning and strength of the workingman's hand,
For the good that our artists and poets have taught,
For the friendship that hope and affection have brought -
Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving!

For the homes that with purest affection are blest,
For the season of plenty and well-deserved rest,
For our country extending from sea unto sea;
The land that is known as the "Land of the Free" -
Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving!

The Family Services Department wishes you and yours a happy and blessed Thanksgiving!

Family Services Department Updates Continued for November, 2012

CHRISTMAS SHARE PROVIDERS NEEDED!

The Family Services Department is requesting assistance again this year to provide Christmas items for tribal families in need. If you, your place of business, or any tribal department would like to sponsor a tribal individual or family in need, please contact Wanda Fowler, the Adult Services Coordinator, at (251)-368-9136, ext. 2373, or at wfowler@pci-nsn.gov.

Please let Wanda know of your interest in sponsoring these individuals and families by November 21, 2012. Typical items needed include food, clothing, new toys for children, household cleaning supplies, and toiletry items. The Family Services Department will provide you with an itemized list of the identified needs from the individuals or families you sponsor. All referrals for participants in this program are initiated through our interoffice referral system and are based upon verified needs. We thank you in advance for your help to assist tribal individuals and families in need during the Christmas season!

MORE THAN WORDS CAN SAY

Submitted by Paula Smith

Words can never express the love and tenderness I feel in my heart for all that my friends and family did for me with this benefit. To all of my Boo Believers, you have stood by me through it all and I am looking ahead to the days of this all being behind me. Your strength has sustained me. I was totally overwhelmed with the outpouring of true love radiating that night at CIEDA. Your support has lifted me in ways you will never know.

I want to personally thank the donors who contributed to the success of the night with all of the items that were raffled off. To my family members in Louisiana and Mississippi, who work for me there, and my co-workers and friends at CIEDA who made it all possible here, I cannot begin to tell you all how truly blessed

I am having you in my life. It truly was an awesome evening. You all worked so hard to get this event right, and you absolutely did.

To the Major Moves Band, you guys are the bomb! You donated your valuable time and talent just for me. How can I ever repay that? Once again, more than words are needed to show my appreciation for what you did.

For Mr. Tim Martin, your idea was inspirational. The night was magic and a lot of money was raised just for my medical needs. If ever the chance arises for me to do it for any of you, I will be there.

Again, thank you all so very much for all the love and support and PRAYERS !!!!!.

Love, Paula Smith (BOO)

Creek Indian Enterprises Development Authority (CIEDA) Small Business Loan Program

Creek Indian Enterprises Development Authority offers valuable business assistance to Tribal Members seeking small business loans. Getting your loan request approved depends on how well you represent yourself, your business, and your financial needs.

The lending limit may extend up to $100,000.00 in aggregate to any Tribal Member. All loans exceeding $50,000.00 must be approved by the CIEDA Board of Directors. Additional credit criteria as well as loan collateralization requirements apply.

If you are a Tribal Member who owns a business or is thinking about starting a business and are interested in obtaining a small business loan, please contact Donna Henry, Economic Development Coordinator, at 251-368-0819, or by e-mail at dhenry@pcicie.com for additional information.

FAREWELL FROM PRINCESS BREIAH ADAMS

Hesci, Breiah Calleen Adams cvhocefkvtos. Hello, my name is Breiah Calleen Adams.

I am the 2011-2012 Poarch Creek Indian Senior Princess. As my reign is coming to an end, I would like to take this time to say what an honor it has been to be able to represent my tribe this past year.

I am very thankful to have been able to serve with two very wonderful young ladies, Kennedy McGhee and Mallory Gibson. I am thankful for the opportunities and experiences that I have had throughout this past year. It has truly been an honor. Mvto.

Peace of Mind.

THANKS AND APOLOGY FROM TRIBAL MEMBER

To Whom It May Concern:

I am Donald Wayne Gibson and I wanted to let the tribal people know how much my wife of 39 years, Atricebea, my daughter, and I appreciate all that the Social Services Department has done for us.

I want to thank individually Michelle Dees, Martha Gookin (my 2nd cousin), and Shirley "Pug" Roberson. Ms. Dees went above and beyond her duties and proved to us that she really cares about solving any problems that families might have. Mrs. Roberson for helping us by washing the dishes and cleaning our house. Again, thank you to all of the Social Services Department for helping us.

We would also like to say a special thank you to all the Tribal Council. I will be the first to admit I have been known to bad mouth some Tribal Council Members, and you know who you are, but I would like to set the record straight and sincerely apologize to those individuals I may have offended in the past.

Final thanks to all the Tribal Council for all you have done.

Donald and Atricebea Gibson
