KEEP YOUR CONTACT INFORMATION UPDATED!

In order for the annual Tribal Member holiday distributions to be processed accurately, Tribal Member Benefits needs to be informed of any changes you may have to your current banking account or address.

Please contact the Tribal Member Benefits Department at (251) 368-9136 x 2209 or 2207 so that a new Direct Deposit Form can be mailed to you to be completed and returned for processing.

It is very important to keep your Tribal Census information up to date. When preparing the newsletter for publication each month an updated Head Of Household mailing list is obtained from Tribal Enrollment to ensure that the address information is current and up-to-date.

Unfortunately each month the Post Office returns numerous newsletters that are undeliverable due to incorrect or incomplete addresses, no mail receptacle, individual moved and left no forwarding addresses, etc. These newsletters are held for one month after publication, if the individual does not claim their newsletter, it is forwarded for recycling.

Failure to update your information may result in the delay or non-delivery of your newsletter and/or other Tribal information.

We know there are many veterans in our Tribe who are not listed above. If you or your loved one is a veteran and your name does not appear on this list, please forward your information to the Poarch Creek News. We want to honor ALL who have served.

It is the Soldier

It is the Soldier, not the minister
 Who has given us freedom of religion.

It is the Soldier, not the reporter
 Who has given us freedom of the press.

It is the Soldier, not the poet
 Who has given us freedom of speech.

It is the Soldier, not the campus organizer
 Who has given us freedom to protest.

It is the Soldier, not the lawyer
 Who has given us the right to a fair trial.

It is the Soldier, not the politician
 Who has given us the right to vote.

It is the Soldier who salutes the flag,
 Who serves beneath the flag,
 And whose coffin is draped by the flag,
 Who allows the protester to burn the flag.

A MOMENT WITH THE TRIBAL CHAIR

NOVEMBER, 2014

Stephanie A. Bryan, Tribal Chair/sbryan@pci-nsn.gov

I am continually grateful and humbled by all of our many blessings, but November is a month that reminds me of how good God has been to us all. Though we've faced triumphs and tragedies, we have certainly enjoyed another prosperous year as a Tribe. It is truly amazing to think about the strides we have made in only a few short decades. I can still vividly recall running along a dirt road that is now paved, and standing in a field that is now home to Wind Creek Atmore. I never could have imagined that we would be such a blessed nation only thirty years later.

As many of you have seen, our new "Faces of Poarch" commercial beautifully showcases this message of humble beginnings and selfless goodwill. Simply put, it is an amazing representation of our Tribe. Furthermore, we have received numerous compliments from all over the country regarding this new effort to raise awareness of who we are as a people. To everyone that was involved in making this a successful production, thank you so much for your help in showing Alabama that we truly are good neighbors.

Though we are blessed, we have also endured much loss as well. Many of our people have passed on, but are now whole and healthy once again. It is hard not to mourn this loss, but we must remember that they have left a legacy that should be celebrated. Bearing this in mind, treasure the moments you have with your loved ones. Mend broken relationships, forgive the wrongs you have experienced, and develop stronger bonds with your family and friends.

This Thanksgiving, we have so much for which to be thankful. There is no doubt that our blessings far outweigh our shortfalls. As we begin to wind down 2014 and start finalizing our plans for 2015, I am reminded of all the benefits¹ we have received as a Tribe including:

- Per Capita & Project Share – By the end of 2014, each Tribal Member over the age of 18 will have received a per capita payment of $18,041.17 and a Christmas distribution of $3,450.00.
- Improved Fire Rating - Our Fire Department acquired an improved fire rating for the local community which means lowered insurance costs for members near the reservation;
- Health Clinic – Patient visits increased 42% in 2014 versus 2013 thanks to increased access to doctors and dentists. These services are free to all Tribal Members;
- Health Benefits - 833 members were provided the Tribal health insurance, 2,239 Tribal Members received medical flex cards, and 633 benefitted from the mail order prescription service;
- Assisted Living Facility – Our first resident has moved into the ALF and is very happy in her new home. She looks forward to seeing other members take advantage of this valuable new resource;
- Community Garden - Over 500 pounds of vegetables were harvested and distributed to our local members;
- Crisis Support - Over 447 members experiencing a major crisis in their lives were aided with life counseling and support;

- Hunting Club – This venture produced over 126 deer and 12 turkeys during the 2013 season. The 2014 club has plans for over 100 feed plots - a major improvement from previous hunting seasons;
- Housing - Construction on 53 new housing units was started in 2014 and we now have over 320 Tribal Member housing units managed by the Tribe. The average rent/payment is $343 per month, which is far below the local market rate for housing;
- Education - Over $3,153,000 was paid in 2014 for Tribal Members' and First Generations' education assistance. Since 2005, 123 college degrees were granted to Tribal Member participants. There have been 117 first generation college graduates since 2009.
- Respite Care - Over 13,000 hours of respite care was provided to Tribal Member families caring for homebound loved ones; and
- Elder Benefit - Over $2,334,000 was paid to our elders ages 55 and older to help improve their quality of life.

Our Tribe has been abundantly blessed, and I hope you will join me in giving thanks to the One who has so graciously provided for us.

Of course, I would be remiss if I did not mention our Annual Thanksgiving Pow Wow. This year, you'll notice that changes and improvements have been made to this event and to the pow wow grounds. Please take the time to thank the members and staff of the Cultural Authority and Facilities crew who have worked so hard to make this event a success. I look forward to seeing you all at this homecoming event. So, please come out and help me celebrate our rich culture, watch our beautiful ladies of all ages compete for the title of "PCI Princess", and enjoy the famous corn.

My prayer for you all is that you have a blessed Thanksgiving overflowing with plenty of food, laughter, and love. Please safely enjoy the holiday and know that I am here for you.

Much love to you and yours as always,

Stephanie A. Bryan

NOVEMBER, 2014

Thanksgiving is a word that evokes images of football, family reunions, turkey with all the trimmings and us, the Native Americans, the original inhabitants of this great country. Many centuries ago pilgrims and Native Americans gathered together to give thanks to the Creator for their bountiful harvest and to celebrate their thankfulness for such basic riches.

The need to connect with loved ones and to express our gratitude is at the heart of all this feasting, prayerful thanks, recreation, and nostalgia for a simpler time. And somewhere in the bustling activity of every November's Thanksgiving is the abiding national memory of a moment in Plymouth, nearly 400 years ago, when two distinct cultures, on the brink of profound and irrevocable change, shared an autumn feast.

Today we should remember the sacrifices that we have endured to have a holiday like Thanksgiving to celebrate and give thanks for what we have; family, food on the table and our heritage. But let us not forget to give thanks every day for all of our blessings and not just one day of the year.

The Tribe has been very prosperous over the last several years and has been able to share that prosperity with each of us. We have so many things to be thankful for compared to a time when we had nothing and no one knew who we were or even wanted to recognize our place in this society.

Many times we lose sight of the suffering of our elders, without them we would not be here to carry on our rich heritage. Our elders are our treasures and we must do all we can to ensure that they are taken care of because ultimately we will also, God willing, be elders one day.

Over the last few months we have lost several precious elders to sickness and health issues. But we can rejoice in the fact that they are in a much better place looking down on us and taking care of us as they did in life on earth.

Much love to you and yours through this approaching holiday season. Please stay safe and reach out to me if you are in need of anything or need an ear to listen or a shoulder to cry on.

I care deeply for each and every one of you; my people, my family. I would like to leave you with one of my favorite Bible verses;

Psalm 100:1-5 & 136:1-26

"Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth. Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations." I give thanks to the Lord for many, many things.

TRIBAL COUNCIL VALUES

As proud leaders of our Tribe, our integrity demands that we are true to who we are.

Our integrity is the foundation of our love for family and community, which strengthens our faith and commitment to do what is right for the Tribe.

We will further the legacy of self-determination and self-reliance inherited from our elders by investing in the progress and driving a vision for the future that leads to our prosperity.

CROWDS DOWN AT ANNUAL CELEBRATION

Approximately 2700 people attended this year's sovereignty celebration. Although the attendance was less than expected, it was a great event and everyone had a wonderful time.

The Calvin McGhee Cultural Authority (CMCA) would like to thank all workers, cooks, volunteers, Mangolia Branch staff, the Tribal Police and Fire Departments, and everyone else that helped make the event a success.

The Pow Wow Club entertained the crowd and introduced their newest members. We can't wait to see them perform at Pow Wow.

As usual, if you went away from the celebration hungry, it was your own fault! There were lima beans, fry bread, hot dogs, hamburgers, chicken, fish, and much more; the lines were long but it was worth the wait.

Each Tribal Member that attended the celebration received a complementary gift; adults received a door mat/rug and the children received a beach towel. In addition to the complementary gift for attending, each Tribal Member received an ornament commemorating the Tribe's thirty (30) years of sovereignty. Tribal Members who were unable to attend the celebration may pick up their commemorative ornament at the museum gift shop. Door mats/rug and towels are also available to those who were unable to attend but are distributed on a first come first serve basis due to limited amounts. Tribal ID is required when picking up your ornament or complementary gift.

Door prizes are always a big draw during the celebration; due to smaller crowds, this year each Tribal Member child in attendance was able to receive a door prize. Sorry, but that was not the case for the adults! There were lots of door prizes, but not all adult Tribal Members received a door prize.

The oldest Tribal Member male and female present were each presented with a cash prize of $100. The oldest male in attendance was Carl McGhee, Sr., age 97; the oldest female in attendance was Ruthie Mae Rackard, age 94. Sadly, Ms. Ruthie Mae passed away shortly after the celebration. She was a special lady and will be greatly missed by all who know and loved her.

If you have not picked up your ornament, please contact Chris "Ding Ding" Blackburn at (251) 368-9136 x 2052.

The Lavan Martin Assisted Living Facility (ALF) would like to welcome their first resident, Willie Faye Thomas. The facility offers a warm and comfortable living environment with onsite amenities that foster a community atmosphere. There are one and two bedroom units available to Tribal Members who find it burdensome to maintain a home and who need assistance with medication, transportation or personal care services. The facility offers three nutritious meals a day along with emergency assistance 24 hours a day for peace of mind.

Faye states that her children were not overly excited about her moving into the ALF but supported her decision.

She moved into her unit on September 15, 2014 and quickly made it feel like home with her furniture and memorabilia.

When asked about her decision to move into the ALF, Faye stated "It is the best decision I have ever made." She also said, "You may think the cost is a little high, but if you look at all the amenities and compare to what you would be paying if you were not here, you would see that it is a very good choice. I have a great apartment; I don't have to pay an electric bill; I have cable and phone but don't have to pay extra for it and I don't have to worry about garbage pick-up. There are just so many things that I don't have to worry about. I am still very independent but if I get sick or need assistance, staff from the ALF is just a call button away."

All unfurnished apartments have a kitchenette with "apartment-style" refrigerators, a sink, storage cabinets, a microwave, a two burner stove and overhead hood, tiled private bathrooms, telephone and cable ready connections, mini-blinds, individually controlled heat/air conditioning, and safety and security features, including emergency call system, safety-assist bars in the bath and smoke detectors. Residents may personalize their apartments with their own memorabilia to make them familiar and comfortable.

Residents are encouraged to be as independent as possible, but should a need arise; staff is available to offer help at any time of the day or night. There is 24 hour staff to provide assistance with self-care tasks, such as grooming, bathing, shaving, dressing, administration of medications and ambulating. A team meeting is held upon admission and at least annually thereafter to assess the residents' needs and develop individual care plans. The admission process can typically be completed within two weeks.

If you are looking for peace of mind and want to enjoy those golden years, join Faye at The Lavan Martin Assisted Living Facility. You may obtain additional information by contacting the ALF Administrator, Michelle Colbert Shaddix, at (251) 446-4899.

Robert and Dana Thrower join former Tribal Chairman Eddie L. Tullis in leading the 2.2 mile Walk of life from Tuscumbia Landing to Tuscumbia Spring Park on Saturday, September 13, 2014.

The 2014 Walk of Life was the most inspiring and emotional walks that has occurred. It was dedicated to Mr. Reed Kirkland, a descendant of George Colbert that Colbert County is named after. Two hundred people and ten tribes were represented in the walk to the Oka Kapassa Festival. Choctaw Ralph Isaacs returned this year and sang an honor song in the Choctaw language in the opening ceremony. Ladies from the Chickasaw, Choctaw and Creek Tulsa (OK) Baptist Choir sang hymns in their native tongue which brought many to tears. Robert Thrower conducted a ceremony to remember the ancestors. The elders and tribal representatives tied feathers to trees to mark a sacred site and to remember that Removal must never happen again. The Chickasaws chose Robert Perry to tie the feather on their behalf and an offering of tobacco was left around the tree.

Because Tuscumbia was once Chickasaw Homeland, tradition dictates that the Chickasaws lead the walk. August 2014 was the bicentennial when the Muskogee Creeks signed the Treaty of Fort Jackson and seceded 23 million acres to form much of Alabama and Georgia. Because of this anniversary, the Creeks were asked to lead the group. Eddie Tullis, former Chairman of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians, was given the honor. He did so in a grand style that made everyone proud.

The 2.2 mile walk ended in the circle at the Tuscumbia Spring Park as visitors gathered to greet the return walkers. The Mississippi Choctaw drummers paid tribute by performing three honor songs.

The walk ended with the singing of Amazing Grace in 4 languages, first in Choctaw, then in Chickasaw, Muskogee Creek, and ended with everyone singing in English. The closing ceremony ended as everyone left the sacred circle walking in a counter clockwise manner. The 2014 return was complete.

IN MEMORY OF

PRESTON "PETE" MCGHEE

DECEMBER 17, 1955 - JULY 3 2014

IN LOVING MEMORY

Little did we know that morning
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide.

And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

We're glad God loaned you to us for a little while.

From Betty, Johnny, and Angela.

IN MEMORY OF

ALTON FRANCHOT "INDIAN AL" PAWLING

JANUARY 18, 1952 - AUGUST 31, 2014

Al Pawling was the son to Barbara J. McGhee Pawling, a
Poarch Creek Indian, and Alton
Pawling, who was of French and Irish parents from New York.

The family traveled all over the country and became very close.
Our parents instilled in us unwavering devotion to family.
Al channeled this value into his friendship and for his friends;
he forgave any trespasses and time and again gave the shirt off his back.

He served two tours in Vietnam, came home and became a pipe fitter and retired only after his health failed him. He was a lifelong motorcycle enthusiast and was happiest when he was on the road.

He was proud to be a Creek Indian. He was loved by his family, and is survived by brother Phil, sister Deb, and cousin Lola. Most of all, he loved his great nephews, Drake and Evan.

We all love & miss you so much.
Believe It.

The family would like to express their heartfelt thanks to the Tribe for all the help and support these last few years and with his passing.

We share the chapel site with photos just in case someone might recognize someone they know.

THANK YOU FROM HUXFORD PTO

The Huxford Elementary PTO would like to thank everyone that gave donations, helped in any part, and/or came out to support our Fall Carnival on October 2, 2014.

The Carnival was a huge success! It was a little off due to the weather, but we moved everything inside and made a few adjustments to accommodate everything. We can't say "thank you" enough to all of you who always jump in to help us make this a great fundraiser for our school.

The PTO officers and school staff put a lot of time and effort in this and at the end of the night we all went home smiling and feeling great. We would also like to say thank you to our Class Moms for making sure the booths were operating the whole night; it takes a lot of time and work to make sure there is a schedule that works the whole night.

Thank you again everyone; it was a great Carnival!

Thanks,

Vicky P. Burkett

Huxford Elementary PTO President

CREEK WAR OF 1813-1814

Submitted by Robert Thrower,
Tribal Historic Preservation Officer (THPO)

A Redstick Victory at Burnt Corn Creek

At 11:00 a.m. on July 27, 1813, Colonel James Caller's troops dismounted their horses and launched a surprise attack, charging and firing upon the Redsticks who were relaxing and enjoying their lunch at their campsite near Burnt Corn Creek.

Though surprised by the attack, the Redsticks quickly returned fire. There was a brief exchange of fire between the two forces, and the Redsticks were forced across the creek and into a nearby cane break. Many of Caller's men turned from the fighting and busied themselves with plundering of supplies and leading away the Redsticks' packhorses. That proved to be a mistake as Caller's men seriously lacked military discipline.

The Redsticks, outnumbered three to one, launched a surprise retaliation attack against Caller's distracted troops. In the confusion and panic, Caller's order to fall back to higher ground was misunderstood by many to be an outright retreat. About eighty men stayed behind to fight, among them Captain Dixon Bailey and Captain Sam Dale. Fighting continued for over an hour, after which the militia retreated and were pursued for over a mile by the retaliating Redsticks.

When the casualties were tallied, Caller had lost two men and had fifteen wounded; among the wounded was Captain Sam Dale.

Robert Thrower, THPO

Redstick losses were estimated at ten to twelve killed and eight or nine wounded.

It was soon determined that Colonel Caller and another officer were missing. They had lost their horses in the confusion and had become lost and bewildered. Fifteen days after the battle, a search party, found them. According to historian H.S. Halbert: "They were afterwards found, starved almost to death, and bereft of their senses...Colonel Caller had on nothing but his shirt and drawers."

Payton T. Taylor, Jr. Veteran of the Month

Payton Tunsel Taylor, Jr. was born on August 14, 1935. He passed away on August 12, 2013. His parents first lived in Bay Minette then moved to Atmore where they raised Payton, his sister Christina, and his brother Kenny. He was a proud member of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians.

He attended Escambia County High School in Atmore. He entered the service on June 15, 1955. While in the service he went to Fort Lewis, Washington. From there he went to Alaska; he always commented that it was beautiful there but real cold. In 1955 he was awarded the National Defense Service Medal and the Good Conduct Medal.

He attended the Engineers School at Fort Belvoir, VA. He was also a Quartermaster Supply Specialist. In 1963 he served at Fort Fitzsimmons in Denver, Colorado; during this time he was an Operating Room Specialist/Medical Corpsman. His medals were Sharpshooter Badge and Letter of Commendation.

In 1957 he married Peggy J. Hadley and they had four children together, Tammy, Dewayne, Sonya and Denise.

After sixteen and a half years Payton and Peggy divorced. In 1974, Payton married Janet

*Payton T. Taylor, Jr.

McCord; they raised four children, Claudette, Joey, Jeremy, and Jessica. After many years they divorced.

Once out of the military he was employed by Sutton's Music Company in Atmore. Payton was very talented with his hands, he repaired video game machines, jukeboxes, pool tables and fixed just about any vehicle you can think of.

Payton's children and grandchildren have fond memories of the adventures they would have while traveling around Escambia and Baldwin County with him while he worked. His food specialty while being a single Dad was Sweet Sue Chicken and Dumplings, hamburgers, pizza, and ice cream. Sounds pretty good huh? Swimming at Little River was always fun too!

From the time he was a young boy, he always loved animals and spent many happy times caring for them. He always had "man's best friend" beside him wherever he went.

In Payton's retired years, he lived at Live Oak Village, where he shared his apartment for many years with his best friend "Billy Bob," his cockatiel. He loved weekly luncheon outings with his daughters. And every chance they got, they would eat lunch in the park, watching the birds and spending time in nature. He loved to watch western movies, the Waltons, and never liked to miss an episode of the Andy Griffith show, even the syndicated reruns.

His faith and belief in God was an important part of his life. He felt it was important to tithe to the Church and he gave each of his children a Family Bible as a keepsake from him. He believed in the golden rule, "do unto others as you would have them do unto you." He lived his life with this as a guiding force and in his quiet, reflective way, he influenced all who knew him to look for the good in others, and to be grateful for each day.

Payton Taylor, Jr., one of many Tribal Members who have proudly served for their family, their Tribe, and their country.

WHEREAS, the Poarch Band of Creek Indians is a federally recognized Tribe organized pursuant to 25 CFR Part 83;

WHEREAS, under Article IX, Section 1, the Tribal Constitution authorizes the Tribal Council to approve resolutions for submitting proposed amendments to the Constitution for a General Council vote at a regular or special election;

WHEREAS, the 2014 election of a new Tribal Chairman, the prospect of a special election this year for the Vice Chair position to fill the vacancy until June 2015, and the election of a Vice Chair in June of 2015 created the need for the Tribal Council to review the vacancy provisions in the Tribal Constitution;

VICE CHAIR CANDIDATE INFORMATION

The following candidate has submitted his Letter of Candidacy for the Vice Chair vacancy on the Tribal Council.

This information is published as submitted without edit except as authorized.

ROBERT "ROBBIE" MCGHEE

My name is Robert "Robbie" McGhee. My parents are Bobby Lawrence and the late Doris Daughtry McGhee.

First of all I would like to thank the individuals who came out and voted during the Chairman's race in June. A Special Election has been scheduled for December 6, 2014 to fill the Vice Chair position that was left vacant when Stephanie Bryan was elected Tribal Chair in the June Election. I am asking for your support in my new appointed role as Vice Chairman.

As a young boy, I was aware of the commitment my great grandfather, Chief Calvin McGhee, made to our Tribe. He cared equally for all his Poarch brothers and sisters. He saw each of our Tribe's members as family whose needs deserved to be met. He sought to lead for all the right reasons, and I continue to learn from his example.

The issues that face our Tribe currently and the challenges that we will face in the future are many and complex. As a Sovereign Nation, our Council must have a deep understanding of those issues and effectively represent our Tribe at all of levels of government. We must be willing to fight for what is right, work tirelessly, make good decisions, and think strategically. I believe I am prepared to meet those challenges, and I want to serve our Tribe and you with a level of energy and commitment that I think would make my great grandfather proud.

I have spent most of my adult years learning and educating myself on the issues affecting American Indians. I have been fortunate to work at the highest levels of federal government. I have first-hand knowledge of how Washington works and how federal policies affect Indian Country.

Every day, I am reminded that education made these experiences possible to me. My education opened doors that may have been shut otherwise, and I am blessed that my parents encouraged me to push myself to earn a BA degree from the University of South to the table and each has done great things for Poarch. I look forward to working with our new Tribal Chair Stephanie Bryan. Together, we can work on addressing the issues affecting our Tribe and secure our future.

I will fight tirelessly for our Tribe. If I am given the opportunity to serve as your Vice Chairman, I will work alongside the Tribal Chair and Council to protect our home, our sovereignty, our livelihood, our culture, and our ability to make dreams become reality in our lifetimes and for future generations.

I am privileged to have learned from leaders such as Eddie L. Tullis, Fred L. McGhee, and Buford L. Rolin. For the past 10 years I have had the opportunity to serve under each of these Chairmen. Each one of them brought their own unique style of leadership

NEWS & INFORMATION

NEW ETHICS OFFICER APPOINTED

The Tribal Council appointed a new Ethics Officer, and alternates, during the regular scheduled Tribal Council meeting on October 2, 2014. The new Ethics Officer is retired Judge Judson Wells with the law firm Carr Allison, in Daphne, AL.

Alternates are William Sisson, Caroline Pryor, and Justin Parsons, also from Carr Allison. The Carr Allison law firm has locations in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, and Tennessee. Their bios are included for your reading.

The Ethics Board would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Chuck Johns for his service as the Ethics Officer over these past years.

In September, the Ethics Board attended the Society of Compliance and Ethics Conference held in Chicago, Illinois. This was a very interesting and informative conference and we learned a lot. We plan to share this information with you over the next few months. One of our guest speakers was FBI Director, James Comey. Mr. Comey spoke on cyber security, which is a concern for individuals as well as corporations.

Until next month, the Ethics Board wishes each and every one a thankful and enjoyable Thanksgiving.

JUDSON W. WELLS, ETHICS OFFICER

After serving with distinction as a Mobile County District Judge from 1997-2007, Judge Wells joined Carr Allison as a Shareholder on January 1, 2008. Since joining Carr Allison, he has brought his years

He has defended labor and employment, professional liability, worker's compensation and insurance claims. Judge Wells also handles property/SIU matters for several insurers. He recently served as a Special Master for Mobile County Circuit Court (appointed by the Honorable Ben Brooks) and also serves as a mediator, both by private retention and by appointment by various Mobile and Baldwin County Circuit judges.

presiding over numerous civil jury trials, including a two week civil trial on a case of first impression in Alabama. Judge Wells served as a frequent lecturer for the Alabama Judicial College from 1998 through 2009. He remains "on call" to handle court dockets for Mobile County District Court as needed. He currently serves on the Mobile County Judicial Commission (2013-2019) as a representative of the Mobile Bar Association.

Judge Wells practiced law for 11 years prior to assuming the bench, specializing in insurance and corporate defense. At the time of his appointment to the bench by Governor Fob James in 1997, he was a named partner in the firm of Janecky, Newell, Potts, Wells & Wilson, PC.

TRIBAL LITIGATION

State of Alabama v. PCI Gaming Authority et al. (Federal Court)

On February 19, 2013, the Alabama Attorney General, on behalf of the State of Alabama, filed a complaint against PCI Gaming Authority, individual Tribal Council members, and individual PCI Gaming Authority Board members (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Tribe”) in the Circuit Court of Elmore County, Alabama. The suit alleges that the Tribe's gaming activities are public nuisances and seeks to prohibit gaming on the Tribe's trust lands. The State of Alabama further claims that the Tribe is not operating on Indian lands, under the United States Supreme Court's 2009 decision in Carcieri v. Salazar, and that the Tribe's lands should not be held in trust.

The Tribe removed the State's complaint to federal court on March 21, 2013, and filed a motion to dismiss the complaint on March 28, 2013. The State then amended its complaint in federal court to include both a state public nuisance claim and a federal public nuisance claim. The Tribe subsequently filed a motion to dismiss the amended complaint. The United States filed an amicus curiae brief in support of the Tribe, and the State of Michigan filed an amicus brief in support of the State of Alabama's position on July 3, 2013.

On April 10, 2014, Chief Judge Keith Watkins of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Alabama issued an opinion and order dismissing the State of Alabama's claims against PCI Gaming and various tribal officials.

The State of Alabama submitted a Notice of Appeal to the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals on May 5, 2014. The State's appellate brief was filed on July 7, 2014. On July 14, 2014, the State of Michigan filed an amicus curiae brief in support of the State of Alabama's position. Michigan was joined by Arizona, Kansas, South Dakota, and Utah.

The Tribe filed its appellate brief on September 10, 2014. The United States and the United South and Eastern Tribes, Inc., filed amicus curiae briefs in support of the Tribe's position on September 17, 2014.

The State of Alabama filed its reply brief on September 24, 2014. The Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals will now consider all of the briefs and issue a decision.

Huntley v. Poarch Band of Creek Indians, ET AL. (State Court)

On July 12, 2014, Lucretia Huntley filed a complaint against the Poarch Band of Creek Indians and PCI Gaming Authority d/b/a Wind Creek Casino (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Tribe") in the Circuit Court of Etowah County, Alabama, alleging that she was injured at Creek Casino Wetumpka because of "congested aisles and crowded aisles and poor design of the design and placement of machines and aisles." Huntley alleges negligence and wantonness and seeks compensatory damages, punitive damages, and damages for mental anguish and emotional distress.

On September 23, 2014, the Tribe filed a Motion to Transfer Venue and a Motion to Dismiss arguing that the court lacked jurisdiction and that the Tribe enjoyed sovereign immunity. Also, on September 23rd, the judge in the case ordered the Plaintiff to respond to the Tribe's motions within thirty (30) days. Plaintiff also filed an Objection to the motions on that day and asserted that the Tribe waived sovereign immunity by purchasing insurance. The court has not ruled on the motions or objection yet.

Pierce v. Poarch Band of Creek Indians, et al. (State Court)

Kevin Pierce filed a complaint against the Poarch Band of Creek Indians d/b/a Creek Travel Plaza and Creek Indian Enterprises d/b/a Creek Travel Plaza (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Tribe"), and S. Rolin, Inc., in the Circuit Court of Escambia County, Alabama, on August 25, 2014. Plaintiff Pierce alleges that he suffered personal injuries as a result of allegedly defective design, construction and installation of a shower bench installed at the Creek Travel Plaza facilities. Pierce asserts both negligence/wantonness and breach of contract/warranties claims and seeks compensatory and punitive damages.

Defendant S. Rolin, Inc. filed an Answer denying all allegations of the Complaint and disclaiming any liability on September 11, 2014.

The Tribe filed a motion to dismiss the complaint arguing that the court lacked jurisdiction and that the Tribe enjoyed sovereign immunity on September 29, 2014. That Motion is set for a hearing on October 14, 2014.

Sugar: Sweet Statistics

We all know that too much sugar can be bad for our health. Did you realize how much sugar comes from our beverage choices? Turns out that sugar-sweetened beverages can increase our risk for diabetes, high blood pressure, high cholesterol and a growing waistline.

Statistics about sugar-sweetened beverages:

- 30 to 50 grams of sugar (roughly 10 teaspoons) are in a can of soda.
- 10 to 15 percent of calories that kids consume daily come from sugar-sweetened beverages and fruit juice.
- 15 pounds is the amount of weight you could lose in a year by cutting out soda!
- 83 percent greater risk of diabetes in women who had one sugar-sweetened beverage per month compared to those who had less than one per month.

What to drink instead:

Many people considerably decrease their soda consumption simply by drinking more water throughout the day. Try adding freshly squeezed lemon or lime juice to flavor your water. Unsweetened tea and coffee can be good options as well.

Diet sodas may seem like a logical alternative but you should still be avoiding these altogether due to the potentially negative effects on blood sugar.

What can you do NOW to change your soda habit?

Make the healthy choice the easy choice. Start by not buying soda or other sugar-sweetened beverages at the grocery store. That way they won't be easily available to you at home. When that becomes a permanent behavior, commit to not ordering soda when you're eating out. Before you know it you'll stop craving soda altogether! This can curb your cravings for other sugary foods as well. This small change can lead to lasting health benefits. Try it!

YOUR HEALTH MATTERS

Small Decisions Make Big Things Happen

Get Control of Your Blood Sugar!

How do you get control of your blood sugar?

Exercise!

Regular physical activity is especially important for people with diabetes and those at risk for diabetes.

During training sessions, or any physical activity, your muscles use your blood sugar for energy. When you exercise consistently, you not only lower your blood sugar, you also improve your A1C level, allowing you to take less insulin. You'll be feeling stronger and healthier in no time! It's a win-win!

The great thing is: any sort of physical activity can help you improve your blood sugar. Here are some suggestions:

- Walking
- Weight Lifting
- Playing with your kids
- Gardening
- Dance Party to Celebrate a Football Win

Strive to do some sort of physical activity for 30 minutes, 2-3 days per week.

Staying active has so many benefits. In addition to improving diabetes, regular physical activity will:

- Lower your blood pressure and cholesterol
- Lower your risk for heart disease and stroke
- Burn calories to help you lose and maintain your weight
- Increase your energy for daily activities
- Help you sleep better
- Relieve stress
- Improve overall blood circulation

Any physical activity helps you lower your blood sugar. Consistent physical activity can lower your A1C level and greatly reduce (or even remove!) the complications of diabetes. Most importantly, you will feel better inside and out.

Now that you have the facts, get moving! Only 30 minutes to a happier and healthier you!

Keep up the great work and make everyday count.

UTILITIES PURCHASES NEW GARBAGE TRUCK

Tribal Utilities has purchased a new garbage truck. The new garbage truck is a 2014 Peterbilt 320 Front Load Chassis with a Currotto Can Automatic Front Loading Hopper for container pick-up. It has a 28yd³ Heil Dura-Pack Compactor Body. The chassis is equipped with a 345hp Paccar PX-9 Engine and an Allison 4500RDS-P Automatic Transmission. It has an automatic interlube system for the chassis and the body in addition to many other features.

The truck is designed to handle dumpster and container pick-ups. PCI Utilities is currently in the process of implementing a new garbage schedule and distributing containers to our customers for disposal.

It is the intentions of PCIUA to pick up dumpsters no less than weekly and continue to collect garbage from our residential customers every Tuesday from a container provided by PCIUA. All customers must be Tribally owned businesses or Tribal Member residences residing in Tribal Housing that do not have a current garbage collection provider.

The responsibilities of the Utilities Authority has grown rapidly, since the Authority has taken on two water systems. We continue to perform all routine and required maintenance to keep both systems preserved and maintain all system lawn care.

Operations continue to grow in size and accountabilities. Headwork improvements have been completed and the work on the West Well Improvement project with Indian Health Services should begin soon.

As always, the Utilities Authority strives at keeping the customers in mind while providing the best possible service.

Additionally, CIEDA executes and oversees building, construction and development projects commissioned by the Tribe.

OUT ON THE LAND

Poarch Creek Indians, Magnolia Branch and Perdido River Farms were featured in an episode of Out on the Land, a television series that showcased the Tribe's conservation efforts.

HAY, DID YOU HEAR ABOUT THE FIRE AT PRF?

It is with sadness that we report a recent fire at Perdido River Farms. During a lightning storm on September 16th, a fire began in the hay barn, and consequently, the farm lost a significant amount of hay. Additionally, the structure attached to the office was damaged and the front office experienced substantial smoke damage. Some equipment was damaged in the fire.

We are happy to report that no cattle or personnel were harmed during the fire nor with the subsequent clean-up efforts.

We want to express our gratitude the Poarch Fire Department for their hard work to control this fire and minimize damage to life and property. We also wish to thank all of the CIEDA staff members who worked diligently to assist with the handling of this event.

John English, Perdido River Farms General Manager stated, "It is heartbreaking to have lost so much, yet we are earnestly grateful that this was the extent of the damage and that not one person or animal was injured."

In October, Thomas successfully passed the Welder III certification scoring a perfect 100% on the test.

The Welder III test consist of both a written and practical exam that is administered by WESCO in Prichard, Alabama.

FOOTBALL FAN TO THE RESCUE

Two boys are playing football in Central Park when one is attacked by a rabid rottweiler. Thinking quickly, the other boy rips a board off of a nearby fence, wedges it down the dog's collar and twists, breaking the dog's neck.

A reporter strolling by sees the incident, and rushes over to interview the boy.

"Young Giants Fan Saves Friend From Vicious Animal," he writes in his notebook.

"But I'm not a Giants fan," the little hero replies.

"Sorry, since we are in New York, I just assumed you were," says the reporter.

"Little Jets Fan Rescues Friend From Horrific Attack," he writes in his notebook.

"I'm not a Jets fan either," the boy says.

"I assumed everyone in New York was either for the Giants or Jets. What team do you root for?" the reporter asks.

"I'm a Cowboys fan," the child says.

The reporter starts a new sheet in his notebook and writes, "Little Redneck Maniac Kills Beloved Family Pet".
