

BOOKS FOR THE BLIND AND PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED - STATE, REGIONAL & NATIONAL

The National Library of Congress in Washington, DC, offers Talking Books and large print editions of books for the blind and physically handicapped. For more information, visit the National Library of Congress online at www.loc.gov/nls.

Music and music instructional materials are also available from the National Library of Congress by calling 800-424-8567 extension 2.

The Alabama State contact information is (toll-free) 800-392-5671 or 334-213-3921 or online at bph@apls.state.al.us

The Regional contact is Ms. Dorothy L. Baker, Alabama Public Library Service, Regional Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. Phone 334-213-3906. Email dbaker@apls.state.al.us