

ABFSE National Scholarship

The National Scholarship Program of the American Board of Funeral Service Education is located in Woodbury Heights, NJ. It was established in the 1960s to provide financial awards to students enrolled in funeral service or mortuary science programs. The program awards scholarships to hundreds of students, and the ABFSE Committee is happy to announce this year is no different! This scholarship competition is quite competitive, so read the instructions carefully.

Who is eligible for an ABFSE National Scholarship?

To be considered for an award, all applicants must:

- Be citizens of the United States.
- Complete at least one semester of study in a program in funeral service or mortuary science education accredited by the American Board of Funeral Service Education.
- Have at least one term or semester remaining in his/her program, which will commence after the award date (April or September) in order to be considered for a full award. Students with less than a full term of study remaining will be considered for partial awards

Reminder: the committee, so make sure that you take the time to fill out and then double-check all forms will not consider late or incomplete applications!

For a detailed list of requirements, please click here.

How much is the ABFSE National Scholarship worth?

Scholarship awards are applied directly to the winner's college, and are generally worth from $1,500 to $2,500 for an academic year. A big benefit of this scholarship is that students may apply once per calendar year as long as they are in good standing. Payment is made after official confirmation of student enrollment from the college or university. Last year, the ABFSE Committee awarded five awards totaling $9,000!

When is the ABFSE National Scholarship application due?

The application deadlines are March 1st or September 1st.

Master's in Microelectronics Scholarship Program

<https://www.src.org/student-center/fellowship/#tab5>.
February 1, 2020 is the deadline for the award ($37,000)

SRC offers doctoral fellowships through the Global Research Collaboration (GRC). Additionally, the Graduate Fellowship Program (GFP) has a focus on improving diversity for underrepresented minorities and women are funded through SRC. GFP includes company-named awards supported by Intel and Texas Instruments. February 01, 2020 is the deadline for applications.

Support & Eligibility

All Fellowships and Scholarships provide:

- Full tuition and university required fees
- A competitive stipend ($37000)

GFP – Fellowship tenure is for up to 3 years (36 mos) of doctoral study. Fellowships will continue to completion of the degree program, but for no more than four years. Continuation of the Fellowship will be contingent only upon satisfactory progress in the proposed course of study and research as determined by the faculty advisor and SRC.

The Fellowships are open to students who:

- are U.S. citizens or have permanent resident, refugee, or political asylum status in the U.S.;
- are pursuing or planning to pursue a Ph.D. degree with research relevant to microelectronics and associated technology under the guidance of an SRC-approved faculty member and with at least two years to completion of the doctoral degree;
- will be performing research under a program approved by SRC; and
- are willing to provide a copy of his/her Ph.D. dissertation to SRC for potential publication to the SRC website.

It is expected that all Fellows will complete their Ph.D. degrees in an area relevant to microelectronics and that upon completion of the program, are encouraged to secure employment within the semiconductor industry or at a U.S. government agency or a faculty position in an accredited four-year U.S. college or university.

Applicants for the program must provide information about persons in their direct lineage (grandparents, parents, spouses, or children) that are children and spouses of employees working at SRC or SRC subsidiaries are not eligible.

GFP and MSP applications are accessible on the SRC website, <https://www.src.org/student-center/fellowship/#tab5>. Notice of fellowship competition is through universities having GRC-sponsored research contracts, and other sources as appropriate.

SUGAR SPUN RUN SCHOLARSHIP

January 1st, 2020, I will begin accepting applications for the 2020 Sugar Spun Run Scholarship.

Sugar Spun Run is proud to announce that we will be awarding a $500 scholarship to one high school senior or college student who authors a winning essay for the Annual Sugar Spun Scholarship.

As a college graduate myself, I am all-too aware of the increasing cost of college tuition, housing, and textbooks! I am very excited for this opportunity to give back and to help fund the cost of college tuition for one student each year!

Requirements

The essay should be written in English and should not exceed 1,000 words. Students must be attending or accepted into a US college or university.

Please save and send electronic submissions in Word or PDF format (PDF preferred). You must submit an original essay.

Students may apply one time each year. The winner will be required to provide proof of enrollment before the scholarship will be awarded.

Applicants must agree to Sugar Spun Run's Official Scholarship Rules and must follow all instructions to be considered.

Judging Criteria

Essays will be judged on originality, creativity, style, grammar, punctuation, and spelling, as well as adherence to the essay prompt.

Essay Prompt

Applicants must write an essay based on one of the following prompts:

- Your most memorable meal
- A life lesson learned through food
- If you could sit down to a meal with any person in history, living or dead, who would you choose, and why? Include the food that you would serve.

Please title the essay with the prompt that you have chosen.

Deadline & Submission

All submissions must be received by 11:59 pm EST, August 1st, 2020.

The application may be submitted via mail or email. Emailed applications must include “Scholarship Application” in the subject line and must be sent to Scholarship@Sugarspunrun.com.

Mailed applications should be sent to:

Sugar Spun Run
5 South Broad Street
P.O. Box 521
New Freedom, PA 17349

Both e-mailed applications and mailed applications must include the following above the essay:

- Your full name
- Your email address
- Phone number
- Mailing address
- The school that you are attending or intend to attend

The winner will be announced on or around August 15, 2020, and will be notified by e-mail. Winners will be featured on the Sugar Spun Run scholarship page.

Please contact Scholarship@Sugarspunrun.com with any further questions regarding this scholarship.
