

Fully-funded fellowships available at the WW Grad School

To make teacher preparation more equitable, the WW Graduate School is offering a number of fully-funded fellowships for highly qualified teacher candidates enrolling in the 2020 class. The Trustee Fellowship covers the entire program tuition cost.

We are still accepting applications for Fall 2020. Do you have students or colleagues with a background in math or science who would make extraordinary teachers? Let them know about this opportunity—they might be the right candidate for the Trustee Fellowship.

REFER A CANDIDATE

Have questions about the WW Graduate School? Speak with our Associate Director of Admissions.

The WW Graduate School looks for the best and brightest STEM graduates and professionals to enter the teaching profession.

Change teaching. Change learning. Change the world.

Find us online

The Woodrow Wilson Graduate School of Teaching and Learning, Inc. admits students to all its programs and activities, administers all policies, and provides all services without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. It accords all students the same rights and privileges.

24 Thorndike St, Cambridge, MA 02141 | 617.902.6103

view in browser | update preferences | unsubscribe