FILING A TERO COMPLAINT

Tribal Government and all Tribal Commercial Entities shall have protest procedures to resolve disputes relating to employment and procurement. A complainant MUST exhaust all ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES with Tribal Government or a Tribal Commercial Entity before pursuing a complaint with the TERO Office. Any Applicant, Tribal Employee, or Certified Business who believes that an Employer or Contractor has violated his/her rights protected under Tribal Employment Rights (Title 33) of the Tribal Code may file a written complaint with the TERO Office.

All administrative remedies must be exhausted. This means exhausting all options through the proper chain of command according to your entities' policies and providing document(s) that your remedies have been exhausted.

A complaint must be sworn/notarized and filed within the appropriate deadline outlined in the TERO Code AFTER the complainant's receipt of notice of exhaustion of all administrative remedies. If you have any questions regarding the filing deadline for different types of TERO violations, we encourage you to contact the TERO Office immediately.

The complaint shall be in writing, signed by the complainant, and describe the Employer's or Contractor's action and how that action has violated the Tribal Employment Rights (Title 33) of the Tribal Code. When filling out a TERO Complaint Form, make sure the form is filled out entirely leaving no blanks. If you have any questions we encourage you to contact the TERO Office. In addition, when filling out a TERO Complaint Form, be sure to include as much detail about your specific situation as possible. You may attach extra documentation to your TERO Complaint Form.
